The Preface.

THe singing of Psalmes, though it breath forth nothing but holy harmony, and melody. yet such is the subtilty of the enemie, and the enemy of our nature against the Lord, & his wayes, that our hearts can finde matter of discord in this harmony, and crotchets of division in this holy melody. -for- There have been three questiōs especially stirrīg cōcerning singing. First. what psalmes are to be sung in churches? whether Davids and other scripture psalmes, or the psalmes invented by the gifts of godly men in every age of the church. Secondly, if scripture psalmes, whether in their owne words, or in such meter as english poetry is wont to run in? Thirdly. by whom are they to be sung? whether by the whole churches together with their voices? or by one man singing alōe and the rest joynīg in silēce, & in the close sayīg amen.

Touching the first, certainly the singing of Davids psalmes was an acceptable worship of God, not only in his owne, but in succeeding times. as in Solomons time 2 Chron. 5. 13. in Iehosaphats time 2 Chron. 20. 21. in Ezra his time Ezra 3. 10, 11. and the text is evident in Hezekiahs time they are commanded to sing praise in the words of David and Asaph, 2 Chron. 29, 30. which one place may serve to resolve two of the questions (the first and the last) at once. for this commandement was it ceremoniall cerimoniall or morall? some things in it indeed were cerimoniall, as their muscicall instruments &c but what ceremony was there in singing prayse with the words of David and Asaph? what if David was a type of Christ, was Asaph also? was every thing of David typical? are his words (which are of morall, universall, and perpetuall authority in all nations and ages) are they typicall? what type can be imagined in making use of his songs to prayse the Lord? If they were typicall because the ceremony of muscicall instruments was joynd with them, then their prayers were also typical, because they had that ceremony of incense admixt with them: but wee know that prayer then was a morall duty, notwithstanding the incense; and soe singing those psalmes notwithstanding their muscicall instruments. Beside, that which was typical (as that they were sung with muscicall instruments, by the twenty-foure orders of Priests and Levites. 1 Chron 25. 9.) must have the morall and spirituall accomplishment in the new Testament, in all the Churches of the Saints principally, who are made kings & priests

Rev. 1. 6. and are the first fruits unto God. Rev. 14 4. as the Levites were Num. 3. 45. with hearts & lippes, in stead of muscicall instruments, to prayse the Lord; who are set forth (as some iudiciously think) Rev. 4. 4. by twenty foure Elders, in the ripe age of the Church, Gal. 4. 1, 2, 3. answering to the members, but the whole Church is commaund-ed to teach one another in all the severall sorts of Davids psalmes, some being called by him selfe מזמורים: psalms, some תהילים Hymns some שירים: spirituall songs. soe that if the singing Davids psalmes be a morall duty & therfore perpetuall; then wee under the new Testamēt are bound to sing them as well as they under the old: and if wee are expresly commaunded to sing Psalmes, Hymnes, and spirituall songs, then either wee must sing Davids psalmes, or else may affirm they are not spirituall songs: which being penned by an extraordinary gift of the Spirit, for the sake especially of Gods spirituall Israell; not to be read and preached only (as other parts of holy writ) but to be sung also, they are therefore most spirituall, and still to be sung of all the Israell of God: and verily as their sin is exceeding great, who will allow Davids psalmes (as other scriptures) to be read in churches (which is one end) but not to be preached also, (which is another end soe their sin is crying before God, who will allow them to be read and preached, but seeke to deprive the Lord of the glory of the third end of them, which is to sing them in christian churches.

obj. 1 If it be sayd that the Saints in the primitive Church did compile spirituall songs of their owne inditing, and sing them before the Church.
1 Cor. 14, 15, 16.

Ans. We answer first, that those Saints compiled these spirituall songs by the extraordinary gifts of

The.

The spirit (common in those dayes) whereby they were inabled to praise the Lord in strange tongues, wherin learned Parvus proves those psalmes were uttered, in his Commēt on that place uers 14 which extraordinary gifts, if they were still in the Churches, wee should allow them the like liberty now. Secondly, suppose those psalmes were sung by an ordinary gift (which wee suppose cannot be evicted) doth it therefore follow that they did not, & that we ought not to sing Davids psalmes? must the ordinary gifts of a private man quench the spirit still speaking to us by the extraordinary gifts of his servant David? there is not the least foot-step of example, or precept, or colour, reason for such a bold practise.

obj. 2. Ministers are allowed to pray conceived prayers, and why not to sing conceived psalmes? must wee not sing in the spirit as well as pray in the spirit?

Ans. First because every good minister hath not a gift of spirituall poetry to compose extemporariy psalmes as he hath of prayer. Secondly. Suppose he had, yet seeing psalmes are to be sung by a joynt consent and harmony of all the Church in heart and voyce (as wee shall prove) this cannot be done except he that composeth a psalme, bringeth into the Church set formes of psalmes of his owne invention; for which wee finde no warrant or president in any ordinary officers of the Church throughout the scriptures. Thirdly. Because the booke of psalmes is so compleat a System of psalmes.

Preface.

psalmes, which the Holy-Ghost himfelfe in infinite wifdome hath made to fuit all the conditions, neceffityes, temptations, affections, &c. of men in all ages; (as moft of all our interpreters on the psalmes have fully and perticularly cleared) therefore by this the Lord feemeth to stoppe all mens mouths and mindes ordinarily to compile or fmg any other psalmes (under colour that the ocasions and conditions of the Church are new) &c. for the publick use of the Church, feing, let our condition be what it will, the Lord himfelfe hath fupplied us with farre better; and therefore in Hezekiahs time, though doubtlesse there were among them thofe which had extraoridnary gifts to compile new fongs on thofe new ocasions, as Ifaiah and Micah &c. yet wee read that they are commanded to fmg in the words of David and Afaph, which were ordinarily to be used in the publick worship of God: and wee doubt not but thofe that are wife will easily fee; that thofe fet formes of psalmes of Gods owne appoyntment not of mans conceived gift or humane imposition were fmg in the Spirit by thofe holy Levites, as well as their prayers were in the spirit which themselves conceived, the Lord not then binding them therein to any fet formes; and shall fet formes of psalmes appoynted of God not be fmg in the spirit now, which others did then?

Question. But why may not one cōpofe a psalme & fmg it alone with a loud voice & the rest joyne with

The.

with him in silence and in the end say Amen?

Ans. If such a practise was found in the Church of Corinth, when any had a psalme suggested by an extraordinary gift; yet in singing ordinary psalmes the whole Church is to ioyne together in heart and voyce to prayse the Lord. -for-
First. Davids psalmes as hath beene shewed, were sung in heart and voyce together by the twenty foure orders of the musicians of the Temple, who typed out the twenty foure Elders all the members especially of christian Churches Rev 5. 8. who are made Kings and Priests to God to prayse him as they did: for if there were any other order of singing Choristers beside the body of the people to succeed those, the Lord would doubtlesse have given direction in the gospel for their quallification, election, maintainance &c. as he did for the musicians of the Temple, and as his faithfullnes hath done for all other church officers in the new Testament.

Secondly. Others beside the Levites (the chiefe Singers) in the Jewish Church did also sing the Lords songs; else why are they commanded frequently to sing: as in ps. 100, 1, 2, 3. ps. 95, 1, 2, 3. ps. 102. title. with vers 18. & Ex. 15. 1. not only Moses but all Israell sang that song, they spake saying (as it is in the orig.) all as well as Moses, the women also as well as the men. v. 20 21. and dent. 32. (whereto some thinke, Iohn had referencē as well as to Ex. 15. 1. when he brings in the protestant Churches getting the victory over the Beast

Preface.

Beast with harps in their hands and singing the song of Moses. Rev. 15. 3.) this song Moses is commanded not only to put it into their hearts but into their mouths also: deut. 31. 19. which argues, they were with their mouths to sing it together as well as with their hearts.

Thirdly. Isaiah foretells in the dayes of the new-Testament that Gods watchmen and desolate lost soules, (signified by wast places) should with their voices sing together, Isa. 52. 8, 9. and Rev. 7. 9, 10. the song of the Lamb was by many together, and the Apostle expressly commands the singing of Psalmes, Himnes, &c. not to any select christians, but to the whole Church Eph. 5. 19 coll. 3. 16. Paule & Silas sang together in private Acts. 16. 25. and must the publick heare oly one man sing? to all these wee may adde the practise of the primitive Churches; the testimony of ancient and holy Basil is in stead of many Epist. 63 When one of us (saith he) hath begun a psalme, the rest of us set in to sing with him, all of us with one heart and one voyce; and this saith he is the common practise of the Churches in Egypt, Lybia, Thebes, Palestina, Syria and those that dwell on Euphrates, and generally every where, where singing of psalmes is of any account. To the same purpose also Eusebius gives witness, Eccles. Hist. lib. 2. cap. 17. The objections made against this doe most of them plead against joyning to sing in heart as well as in voyce, as that by this meanes others out of the Church will sing

as also that wee are not alway in a sutable estate to the matter sung, & likewise that all cannot sing with understanding; shall not therefore all that have understanding ioyne in heart and voyce together? are not all the creatures in heaven, earth, seas: men, beasts, fishes, foules &c. commanded to praise the Lord, and yet none of these but men, and godly men too, can doe it with spirituall understanding?

As for the scruple that some take at the translation of the book of psalmes into meeter, because Davids psalmes were sung in his owne words without meeter: wee answer. First. There are many verses together in several psalmes of David which run in rithmes (as those that know the hebrew and as Buxtorf shews Thesau. pa. 629.) which shews at least the lawfullnes of singing psalmes in english rithmes.

Secondly. The psalmes are penned in such verses as are sutable to the poetry of the hebrew language, and not in the common style of such other bookes of the old Testament as are not poeticall; now no protestant doubteth but that all the bookes of the scripture should by Gods ordinance be extant in the mother tongue of each nation, that they may be understood of all, hence the psalmes are to be translated into our english tongue; and if in our english tongue wee are to sing them, then as all our english songs (according to the course of our english poetry) do run in metre, soe ought Davids psalmes to be translated into meeter, that soe wee may sing the Lords songs, as in our english tongue soe in such verses as are familiar to an english eare which are commonly metricall: and as it can be no just offence to any good conscience to sing Davids hebrew songs in english words, soe neither to sing his poeticall verses in english poeticall metre: men might as well stumble at singing the hebrew psalmes in our english tunes (and not in the hebrew tunes) as at singing them in english meeter, (which are our verses) and not in such verses as are generally used by David according to the poetry of the hebrew language: but the truth is, as the Lord hath hid from us the hebrew tunes, lest wee should think our selves bound to imitate them; soe also the course and frame (for the most part) of their hebrew poetry, that wee might not think our selves bound to imitate that, but that every nation without scruple might follow as the graver sort of tunes of their owne country songs, soe the graver sort of verses of their owne country poetry.

Neither let any think, that for the meetre sake wee have taken liberty or poeticall licence to depart from the true and proper sence of Davids words in the hebrew verses, noe; but it hath beene one part of our religious care and faithfull indeavour, to keepe close to the originall text.

As for other obiections taken from the difficulty of Ainsworths tunes, and the corruptions in our common psalme books, wee hope they are answered in this new edition of psalmes which wee here present to God and his Churches. For although wee have cause to blesse God in many respects for the religious indeavours of the translators of the psalmes into meetre usually annexed to our Bibles, yet it is not unknowne to the godly learned that they have rather presented a paraphrase then the words of David translated according to the rule 2 chron. 29. 30. and that their addition to the words, detractions from the words are not seldome and rare, but very frequent and many times needles, (which we suppose would not be approved of if the psalmes were so translated into prose) and that their variations of the sense, and alterations of the sacred text too frequently, may iustly minister matter of offence to them that are able to compare the translation with the text; of which failings, some iudicious have oft complained, others have been grieved, wherupon it hath bin generally desired, that as wee doe inioye other, soe (if it were the Lords will) wee might inioye this ordinance also in its native purity: wee have therefore done our indeavour to make a plaine and familiar translation of the psalmes and words of David into english metre, and have not soe much as presumed to paraphrase to give the sense of his meaning in other words; we have therefore attended heerin as our chief guide the originall, shuning all additions, except such as even the best translators translators of them in prose supply, avoiding all materiall detractions from words or sence. The word and which wee translate and as it is redundant sometime in the Hebrew, soe sometime (though not very often) it hath been left out, and yet not then, if the sence were not faire without it.

The.

As for our translations, wee have with our english Bibles (to which next to the Originall wee have had respect) used the Idioms of our owne tongue in stead of Hebraismes, lest they might seeme english barbarismes.

Synonimaes wee use indifferently: as folk for people, and Lord for Iehovah, and sometime (though seldome) God for Iehovah; for which (as for some other interpretations of places cited in the new Testament) we have the scriptures authority ps. 14. with 53. Heb. 1. 6. with psalme 97. 7.

Where a phrase is doubtfull wee have followed that which (in our owne apprehension) is most genuine & edifying:

Sometime wee have contracted, sometime dilated the same hebrew word, both for the sence and the verse sake: which dilatation wee conceive to be no paraphrasticall addition no more then the contraction of a true and full translation to be any unfaithfull detraction or diminution: as when wee dilate who healeth and say he it is who healeth; soe when wee contract, those that stand in awe of God and say Gods fearers.

Lastly, Because some hebrew words have a more full and emphaticall signification then any one english word can or doth sometime expresse, hence wee have done that sometime which faithfull translators may doe, viz. not only to translate the word but the emphasis of it; as ל mighty God, for God. ךך humbly blesse for blesse; rise to stand, psalm 1. for stand truth and faithfullnes for truth. Howbeit, for the verse sake wee doe not alway thus, yet wee render the word truly though not fully; as when wee sometime say reioyce for shout for ioye.

The.

As for all other changes of numbers, tenses, and characters of speech, they are such as either the hebrew will unforcedly beare, or our english forceably calls for, or they no way change the sence; and such are printed usually in an other character.

If therefore the verses are not alwayes so smooth and elegant as some may desire or expect; let them consider that Gods Altar needs not our pollishings: Ex. 20. for wee have respected rather a plaine translation, then to smooth our verses with the sweetnes of any paraphrase, and soe have attended Conscience rather then Elegance, fidelity rather then poetry, in translating the hebrew words into english language, and Davids poetry into english meetre; that

THE PSALMES

In Metre

PSALME I

- O Blessed man, that in th' advice of wicked doeth not walk:
nor stand in sinners way, nor sit in chayre of scornfull folk.
- 2 But in the law of Iehovah, is his longing delight:
and in his law doth meditate,
by day and eke by night.
- 3 And he shall be like to a tree planted by water-rivers:
that in his season yeilds his fruit,
and his leafe never withers.
- 4 And all he doth, shall prosper well,
the wicked are not so:
but they are like vnto the chaffe, which winde drives to and fro.
- 5 Therefore shall not ungodly men, rise to stand in the doome, nor shall the sinners with the just,
in their assemblie come.
- 6 For of the righteous men, the Lord acknowledgeth the way:
but the way of vngodly men, shall vtterly decay.

PSALM II

- V Why rage the Heathen furiously?
muse vaine things people do;
2 Kings of the earth doe set themselves, Princes consult also:
with one consent against the Lord,
and his anoynted one.
3 Let us afunder break their bands, their cords bee from us throwne.
4 Who sits in heav'n shall laugh; the lord will mock them; then will he 5 Speak to them in his ire, and wrath:
and vex them suddenlie.
6 But I annoynted have my King upon my holy hill
7 of Zion: The established counsell declare I will.
God spake to me, thou art my Son;
this day I thee begot.
8 Aske thou of me, and I will give the Heathen for thy lot:
and of the earth thou shalt possesse
the utmost coasts abroad.
9 thou shalt them break as Potters sherds and crush with yron rod.
10 And now yee Kings be wise, be learn'd yee Iudges of th'earth (Hearc.) 11 Serve yee the lord with reverence, rejoyce in him with feare.
12 Kisse yee the Sonne, lest he be wroth, and yee fall in the way.
when his wrath quickly burnes, oh blest?

Pfalme 3

A psalme of David when he fled from the face of Absalom his Sonne.

O Lord, how many are my foes?
how many up against me stand?

2 Many say to my soule noe helpe in God for him at any hand.

3 But thou Lord art my shield, my glory and the-uplifter of my head,

4 with voyce to God I cal'd, who from his holy hill me answered.

5 I layd me downe, I slept, I wakt, for Iehovah did me up beare:

6 People that set against me round, ten thousand of them I'le not feare.

7 Arise o Lord, save me my God, for all mine enimies thou hast stroke upon the cheek-bone: 8 the teeth of the ungodly thou hast broke.

8 This, and all such salvation, belongeth vnto Iehovah;
thy blessing is, and let it be upon thine owne people. Selah.

Pfalme 4

To the cheife Musician on Neginoth,
a psalme of David.

GOD of my justice, when I call and heare thou my request.

PSALM 1V

- 2 Ye Sonnes of men, my glory turne to shame how long will you?
how long will ye love vanity,
and still deceit pursue?
- 3 But know, the Lord doth for himselfe set by his gracious faint:
the Lord will heare when I to him doe poure out my complaint.
- 4 Be stirred up, but doe not sinne, consider seriouſlie:
within your heart upon your bed,
and wholly ſilent be.
- 5 The ſacrifices of iuſtice, let ſacrificed be,
and confidently put your truſt
on Iehovah doe ye.
- 6 Many there be that ſay o who,
will cauſe us good to ſee:
the light, Lord, of thy countenance let on us liſted be.
- 7 Thou haſt put gladneſſe in my heart, more then the time wherein their corne, and alſo their new wine,

- 8 In peace with him I will lye downe, and take my ſleepe will I:
For thou Lord mak'ſt me dwell alone in confident ſafety.

a pſalme of David.

PSALME V

- Hear thou my words and understand my meditation, Iehovah.
- 2 My King, my God, attend the voyce of my cry: for to thee I pray.
- 3 At morn Iehovah, thou shalt heare my voyce: to thee I will addresse
- 4 at morn, I will looke up. For thou art not a God lovst wickednesse neither shall evil with thee dwell.
- 5 Vaine glorious fooles before thine eyes shall never stand: for thou hatest all them that worke iniquities.
- 6 Thou wilt bring to destruction the speakers of lying-falshood, the lord will make to be abhor^d
 the man deceitfull, and of blood.
- 7 But I will come into thine house in multitude of thy mercy:
 and will in feare of thee bow downe,
 in temple of thy sanctiry.
- 8 Lead me forth in thy rightousnes, because of mine observing spies, O Iehovah doe thou thy wayes make straight, and plaine, before mine eyes
- 9 For there no truth is in his mouth, their inward part iniquities;
 their throat an open sepulchre, their tongue is bent to flatteries.

 from their owne plots let them fall far, cast them out in their heapes of sinnes, and wilt him crowne as with a sheild, with gracious acceptation.

 3 Also my soule is troubled sore:
 how long Lord wilt thou me forsake?
 4 Returne o Lord, my soule release:
 o save me for thy mercy sake.
 5 In death no mem'ry is of thee and who shall prayse thee in the grave?
 6 I faint with goanes, all night my bed swims, I with tears my couch washt have.
 7 mine eye with grief is dim ne and old:
 because of all mine enemies.

Pfalme 8

To the chiefe Musician upon Gittith,
a psalme of David.

O LORD our God in all the earth how's thy name wondrous great:
who hast thy glorious majesty thy strength thou didst ordeine, that thou mightst still the enemy, and them that thee disdain.

that thou dost him remember?
or what's the Son of man, that thus and all that passe through paths of seas.

how wondrously-magnificent is thy name through the world?

Psalme 9

To the chiefe Musician upon Muth-Labben
a psalme of David

- LORD I'le the prayse, with all my heart;
thy wonders all proclaime.

most high, I'le sing thy name.
3 In turning back my foes, they'le fall and perish at thy sight.
4 For thou maintaines my right, & cause:
In throne sits judging right.
5 Thou t' heathen checkst, & th'wicked stroyd;
their names raz'd ever aye.
6 Thy ruines, foe, for aye are done;
thou madst their townes decaye;
their memory with them is lost.

his throne to judgement he prepares.

he to the folke shall minister judgement in uprightnesse.

- 13 Iehovah, mercy on me have,
from them that doe me hate marke mine afflictions that arise, thou lift'st me from deaths-gate.
- 14 That I may tell in the gates of the Daughter of Sion, thy prayes all: and may rejoyce
in thy salvation.
- 15 The heathen are sunk downe into the pit that they had made:
their owne foot taken is ith'net which privily they layd.
- 16 By judgement which he executes Iehovah is made knowne:
the wicked's snar'd in's owne hand work, deepe meditation.
- 17 The wicked shall be turn'd to hell,
all lands that God forget.
- 18 Forgot the needy shall ne're be:
poores hope ne're faild him yet.

PSALM IX, X:

19 Arise, o Lord, lest men prevaile, judge t^e heathen in thy sight.

20 That they may know they be but men, the nations Lord affright. Selah

Pfahme 10

V Hy standst thou Lord a far? why hydst thy selfe in times of streight?

2 In pride the wicked persecutes the poore afflicted wight:
snare them in their contrived plots,

3 For of his hearts desire the wicked boasts, and covetous blesseth, stirring Gods ire.

4 The wicked one by reason of his countenances pride will not seek after God: not God so all his thoughts abide.

5 his wayes doe alwayes bring forth griefe, on high thy judgements bee above his sight: his pressing foes puffe at them all will hee.

6 Within his heart he thus hath sayd,
I moved shall not bee:
from aye to aye because I am not in adversitie

7 His mouth with cursing filled is,
deceits, and fallacy:
under his tongue perversnes is,
also iniquity.

8 In the close places of the townes he sits, in secret dens

he slays the harmlesse: 'gainst the poore slyly his eyes downe bends.

9 He closely lurks as lion lurks in den, the poore to catch he lurks, & trapping them in 's net th' afflicted poore doth snatch.

10 Downe doth he crouch, & to the dust humbly he bowes with-all:
that so a multitude of poore
in his strong pawes may fall.

11 He faith in heart, God hath forgot:
he hides his face away,
so that he will not see this thing unto eternall aye.

12 Iehovah rise thou up, o God lift thou thine hand on hy, let not the meek afflicted one be out of memory.

13 Wherefore doth the ungodly man contemne th' almighty one?
he in his heart faith, thou wilt not make inquisition.

14 Thou seeest, for thou markst wrong, & spight, with thy hand to repay:
the poore leavs it to thee, thou art of fatherlesse the stay.

15 Break thou the arme of the wicked, and of the evil one.
search thou out his impiety, unill thou findest none.

PSALM X, XI.

16 Iehovah king for ever is,
and to eternall aye:
out of his land the heathen folke are perished away.

17 The meeke afflicted-mans desire Iehovah, thou dost heare:
thou firmly dost prepare their heart, thou makst attent thine eare.

18 To judge the fatherlesse & poore; that adde no more he may sorrowfull man out of the land with terror to dismay.

Psalme 11

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

I In the Lord do trust; how then to my soule doe ye say, as doth a litle bird unto your mountaine flye away?

2 For loe, the wicked bend their bow, their arrows they prepare on string; to shoot in dark at them in heart that upright are.

3 If that the firme foundationes, utterly ruin'd bee:

as for the man that righteous is,
what then performe can hee?

4 The Lord in's holy temple is,
the Lords throne in heaven:
his eyes will view, and his eye lids will prove the Sonnes of men.

PSALME XI, XII.

- 5 The man that truly-righteous is ev'n him the Lord will prove;
his soule the wicked hates, & him that violence doth love.
- 6 Snares, fire, & brimstone he will raine,
ungodly men upon:
and burning tempest; of their cup shall-be their portion.
- 7 For Iehovah that righteous is,
all righteousnesse doth love:
his countenane the upright one beholding, doth approve.

Psalme 12

To the chiefe Musician upon Sheminith
a psalme of David.

HElpe Lord: for godly men doe cease:
faithfull faile men among.

- 2 Each to his freind speaks vanity;
with flattring lips, and tongue and with a double heart they speake.
- 3 All flatt'ring lips the Lord shall cut them of, with every tongue that speaketh boasting word.
- 4 Thus have they sayd, we with our tongue, prevailing pow're shall get:
are not our lips our owne. for Lord who over us is set?
- 5 Thus saith the Lord, for sighs of them that want, for poor opprest, I'le now arise, from such as puffed, will set him safe at rest.

PSALM XII, XIII.

- 6 Pure are the words the Lord doth speak:
as silver that is tryde in earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purifyde.
- 7 Thou shalt them keep, o Lord, thou shalt preserve them ev'ry one, For evermore in safety from
this generation.
- 8 The wicked men on evry side
doe walk presumptuously, when as the vilest sons of men

Psalme 13

To the chiefe Musician: a psalme
of David.

- O IEHOVAH, how long wilt thou forget me aye?
how long wilt thou thy countenance hide from me farre away?
- 2 How long shall I counsell, in my soule take, sorrow in my heart dayly? o're me set how long shall be my foe?
- 3 Iehovah, o my God,
behold me answer make,
Illuminate mine eyes, lest I the sleepe of death doe take.
- 4 Lest my foe say, I have.
prevaild 'gainst him: & me those who doe trouble, doe rejoyce, when I shall moved bee.

PSALME X III, X IIII.

have put in thy mercy;
my heart in thy salvation shall joy exceedingly.
- 6 Vnto Iehovah I will sing, because that hee, for evil bountifully hath rewarded good to mee.

Psalme 14.

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of Dauid.

- THe foole in's heart faith ther's no God:
they are corrupt, have done
abominable-practises,
that doth good there is none.
- 2 The Lord from heaven looked downe
on Sonnes of men: to see,
if any that doth understand,
that seeketh God there bee.
- 3 All are gone back, together they
ev'n filthy are become:
and there is none that doeth good,
noe not so much as one.
- 4 The workers of iniquities,
have they no knowledge all?
that eate my people: they eate bread,
and on God doe not call.
- 5 There with a very grievous feare affrighted fore they were,
for God in generation is of such as righteous are:

PSALM XIV, XV.

that poore afflicted is,
to be asham'd & that because the Lord his refuge is.

glad Israel shall be.

Psalme 15

A psalme of David.

IEHOVAH, who shall in thy tent sojourn, and who is hee shall dwell within thy holy mount?

1 He that walks uprightlie,
And worketh justice, and speaks truth

2 in's heart, And with his tongue he doth not slander, neither doth unto his neighbour wrong,

And 'gainst his neighbour that doth not take up reproachfull lyes.

3 Hee that an abject person is contemn'd is in his eyes;

But he will highly honour them that doe Iehovah feare:

and changeth not, though to his losse,
if that he once doe sweare.

4 Nor gives his coyne to vsury, and bribe he doth not take against the harmelesse: he that doth these things shall never shake.

PSALME XVI.

Pfalme 16

Michtam of David

O Mighty God, preserve thou mee;
for on thee doe I rest.

2 Thou art my God, vnto the Lord my soule thou hast profest:

My goodnes reacheth not to thee.

3 But to the Saints upon the earth & to the excellent, whome all my joye is on.

4 They who give gifts to a strange God, their sorrowes multiplie:
their drink oblations of blood offer up will not I.

Neither will I into my lips
the names of them take up.

5 Iehovah is the portion of my part, & my cup:
Thou art maintainer of my lot.

6 To me the lines fal'n bee in pleasant places: yea, faire is the heritage for mee.

7 I will Iehovah humbly-bleffe, who hath mee counfelled:
yea in the nights my reines have mee, chastising nurtured.

8 Iehovah I have alwayes set as present before mee:
because he is at my right hand
I shall not moved bee.

9 Wherefore my heart rejoyced hath,

PSALM XV^r, XVth.

- and glad is my glory:
moreover also my flesh shall in hope lodge securely.
10 Because thou wilt not leave my soule within the grave to bee, nor wilt thou give thine holy one, corruption for to see.
11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life, of joyes abundant-store before thy face, at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

Psalme 17

A Prayer of David.

- Harken, O Lord, unto the right, attend vnto my crye,
give eare vnto my pray'r, that goes from lips that doe not lye.
2 From thy face let my judgement come:
thine eyes the right let see.
3 Thou prov'st mine heart, thou visitest by night, and tryest mee.
yet nothing find'st, I have resolv'd my mouth shall not offend.
4 From mens works: by word of thy lips
I spoylers paths attend.
5 Stay my feet in thy paths, lest my 6 steps slip. I cal'd on thee, for thou wilt heare, God, heare my speech, incline thine eare to mee.
7 O thou that sav'st by thy right hand, thy mervellous-mercyes,

8 As apple of thine eye mee keepe:
In thy wings shade mee hide.

9 From wicked who mee wast: my foes in heart are on each side.

10 Clos'd in their fat they are: & they speak with their mouth proudly.

11 They round us in our stepps: they set on earth their bow'd downe eye.

12 His likenes as a lion is,
that greedy is to teare, in secret places lurking as hee a young lion were.

13 Him, in his sight, rise, disappoynt make him bow downe o Lord, doe thou my soule deliver from the wicked one, thy sword,

14 From mortall men thine hand, o Lord, from men that mortall are,
and of this passing-world, who have within this life their share, with thy hid treasure furthermore whose belly thou fillest:
their sonnes are fil'd, & to their babes of wealth they leave the rest.

15 In righteousness, thy favour I shall very clearely see, and waking with thine image, I shall satisfied bee.

PSALM XVIII

Pfalme 18

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David, the servant of the Lord, who spake the words of this Song, in the day that the Lord deliuered him from the hands of all his enemies, & from the hand of Saule. and hee Sayde,

- I L'e dearely love thee, Lord, my strength:
 The Lord is my rock, and my towre,
 and my deliverer, my God,
 I'le trust in him who is my powre,
 My shield, & my salvationes-horne,
 2 my high-fort; Who is prayse worthy,
 I on the Lord will call, so shall
 I bee kept from mine enemye.
 4 Deaths sorrowes mee encompassed, mee fear'd the floods of ungodlie, 5 Hells pangs beset me round about,
 the snares of death prevented mee.
 6 I in my streights, cal'd on the Lord, and to my God cry'd: he did heare from his temple my voyce, my crye, before him came, unto his eare.
 7 Then th' earth shooke, & quak't, & mountaines roots moov'd, & were stird at his ire, 8 Vp from his nostrils went a smoak, and from his mouth devouring-fire:
 By it the coales inkindled were.
 9 Likewise the heavens he downe-bow'd, and he descended, & there was under his feet a gloomy cloud.
 10 And he on cherub rode, and flew;
 yea he flew on the wings of winde.
 11 His secret place hee darknes made

P S A L M E XViii.

- his covert that him round confinde, Dark waters, & thick clouds of skies.
- 12 From brightnes, that before him was,
 his thickned clouds did passe away, hayl-stones and coales of fire did passe;
- 13 Also Iehovah thundered, within the heavens, the most high likewise his angry-voyce did give,
 hayl-stones, and coales of fire did fly.
- 14 Yea he did out his arrows send,
 and bruising he them scattered,
 and lightnings hee did multiply, likewise he them discomfited.
- 15 The waters channels then were seene, and the foundationes of the world appear'd; at thy rebuke, at blast, of the breath of thy nostrils Lord.
- (2)
- 16 Hee from above sent hee me took:
 me out of waters-great he drew.
- 17 Hee from mine enemies-strong, & from them which me hated did rescue:
 For they were mightyer then I.
- 18 They mee prevented in the day of my cloudy calamity,
 but for me was the Lord a stay.
- 19 And hee me to large place brought forth hee sav'd mee, for he did delight
- 20 in mee. The Lord rewarded me according as I did aright, According to the cleanness of

PSALM XVIII.

- my hands, he recompenced mee:
 21 For the wayes of the Lord I kept:
 nor from my God went wickedlies:
 22 For all his judgements mee before:
 nor from me put I his decree.
 23 With him I upright was, and kept my selfe from mine iniquitie.
 24 The Lord hath recompenced mee, after my righteousnes therefore:
 according to the cleannesse of my hands that was his eyes before.
 25 With mercifull, thou mercifull, with upright thou deales uprightly.
 26 With pure thou pure, thou also wilt with froward turne thy selfe awry.
 27 For thou wilt save th' afflicted folke:
 but wilt the lofty looks suppress.
 28 For thou wilt light my lampe: the Lord, my God will lighten my darknesse.
 29 For by the I rann through a troupe, and by my God leapt o're a wall.
 30 Gods way is perfect: Gods word tryde:
 that trust in him hee's shield to all.
 31 For who is God except the Lord?
 or who a rock, our God except?
 32 Its God that girdeth me with strength, and hee doth make my way perfect.
 33 Like to the hynles he makes my feet:
 and on my high place maks me stand.
 34 Mine armes doe break a bow of brasse;
 so well to ware he leagnes my hand.

PSALME XVIII.

- 35 The shield of thy salvation thou furthermore hast given mee:
 and thy right-hand hath mee upheld, thy meeknes made mee great to bee.
- 36 Vnder mee thou makst large my steps, so that mine anckles did not flyde
- 37 My foes pursu'de I, & them caught:
 nor turn'd I till they were destroyd.
- 38 I wounded them & they could not rise up: under my feet they fell.
- 39 Because that thou hast girded mee with fortitude to the battel:
 Thou hast subdued under mee,
 those that did up against me rise.
- 40 And my foes necks thou gavest mee, that I might wast mine enemyes.
- 41 They cryde but there was none to save,
 to God, yet with no answer meet.
- 42 I beat them then as dust i'th winde and cast them out as dirt i'th street.
- (4)
- 43 And thou from the contentions hast of the people mee set free;
 thou of the heathen mad'st me head:
 people I knew not shall serue mee.
- 44 They'le at first hearing me obey:
 strangers shall yield themselvs to mee.
- 45 The strangers shall consume away,
 and from their closets frighted bee.
- 46 The Lord lives, and blest be my Rock, let my healths God exalted bee.

PSALM XVIII, XIX

- 47 It's God for mee that vengeance works, and brings downe people under mee.
48 Mee from mine enemies he doth save:
and above those that 'gainst me went,
thou lift'st me up; and thou hast freed mee from the man that's violent.
49 I with confession will therefore unto thee render thanksgiving, o Lord, among the heathen-folk;
and to thy name I'll prayses sing:

to his King, and doth shew mercy to his annoynted, to David, and to his seed eternally.

Psalme 19

To the chiefe musician a psalme of David.

the majesty of God:

night hath to night declar'd.

where their voyce is not heard.

their speaches reach also:

7 The Lords law perfect is,
the soule converting back:
Gods testimony faithfull is,
makes wise who-wisdome-lack.

8 The statutes of the Lord, are right, & glad the heart:
the Lords commandement is pure, light doth to eyes impart.

9 Iehovahs feare is cleane, and doth indure for ever:
the judgements of the Lord are true,
and righteous altogether.

10 Then gold, then much fine gold, more to be prized are,
then hony, & the hony-comb, sweeter they are by farre.

11 Also thy servant is admonished from hence:
and in the keeping of the same is a full recompence.

who my redeemer art.

Psalme 20

To the chiefe Musician, a psalme of David.

IEHOVAH heare thee in the day of sore calamity,
the name of the God of Jacob defend thee mightily.

2 Send thee help from his holy place:
from Sion strengthen thee.

3 Minde all thy gifts, thy sacrifice accepted let it bee. Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thy heart, all thy counsell fulfill.

5 In thy perfect salvation with singing joy we will:

And we in the name of our God our banners will erect:

when as all thy petitions Iehovah shall effect.

6 Now I know, that Iehovah doth save his annoynted-Deare:

with saving strength of his right hand from his pure heav'n will heare.

7 In charrets some their confidence, and some in horses set:

but

PSALME xx, XXI.

but we the name of Iehovah
our God will not forget.

8 They are brought downe & fal'n: but we, rise and stand stedfastly.

9 Save Lord, & let the King us heare when as to him we cry.

Pfalme 21

To the chiefe Musician a psalme
of David.

IEHOVAH, in thy strength the King shall joyfull bee; and joy in thy salvation how vehemently shall hee?

2 Thou of his heart to him hast granted the desire:
and thou hast not withholden back, what his lips did require. Selah.

3 For thou dost with blessings of goodnes prevent him:
thou on his head of finest gold hast set a Diadem.

4 Of thee hee asked life,
to him thou gav'st it free, even length of days for evermore unto eternitie.

5 In thy salvation
his glory hath bene great honour, and comely dignity thou hast upon him set.

6 For thou him blessings setst to perpetuities;

PSALM XXI.

- Thou makst him with thy countenance:
exceeding glad to bee.
- 7 Because that in the Lord
the King doth trust, & hee through mercy of the highest one, shall not removed bee.
- 8 The Lord shall finde out all that are thine enemies:
thy right hand also shall finde out those that doe thee despise.
- 9 Thou setst as fiery oven them in times of thine ire:
the Lord will swallow them in's wrath,
and them consume with fire.
- 10 Thou wilt destroy the fruit, that doth proceed of them, out of the earth: & their seed from among the Sonnes of men.
- 11 Because they evill have intended against thee:
a wicked plot they have devis'd,
but shall not able bee.
- 12 For thou wilt as a butt them set; & thou wilt place thine arrows ready on thy string, full right against their face.
- 13 Lord, in thy fortitude exalted bee on high:
and wee will sing; yea prayse with psalmes thy mighty power will wee.

PSALME XXII.

Psalme 22

To the chiefe musician upon Aijeleth Shahan
a psalme of David.

MY God, my God, wherefore hast thou forsaken mee? & why,
art thou so farre from helping mee,
from the words of my cry?

2 O my God, I doe cry by day, but mee thou dost not heare;
and eke by night, & unto mee
no quiet rest is there.

3 Neverthelesse thou holy art, who constantly dost dwell, within the thankfull prayes of thy people Israell.

4 Our fore-fathers in thee have put assured confidence:
they trusted have, & thou to them didst give deliverance.

5 Vnto thee they did cry aloud, and were delivered:
in thee they put their confidence,
and were not confounded.

6 But I a worme, & not a man;
of men an opprobrie,
and also of the people am despis'd contemptuously.

7 All they that doe upon mee look,
a scoffe at mee doe make:
they with the lip doe make a mow,
the head in scorne they shake.

PSALM XXII.

- 8 Vpon the Lord he rold himselfe;
 let him now rid him quite:
 let him deliver him, because in him he doth delight.
- 9 But thou art hee that me out of the belly forth didst take:
 when I was on my mothers breasts, to hope thou didst mee make.
- 10 Vnto thee from the tender-womb committed been have I: yea thou hast been my mighty-God from my mothers belly.
- (2)
- 11 Be thou not farre away from mee, for tribulation
 exceeding great is neere at hand, for helper there is none.
- 12 Mee many buls on every side about have compassed:
 the mighty- buls of Bashan have mee round invironed.
- 13 They have with their wide-opened-mouths so gaped mee upon;
 like as it were a ravening and a roaring Lion.
- 14 As water I am poured-out,
 and all my bones fundred:
 my heart in midst of my bowels,
 is like to wax melted.
- 15 My strength like a potsherd is dryde;
 and my tongue fast cleaveth unto

PSALME XXII.

- unto my jawes, & thou hast brought me to the dust of death.
- 16 For dogs have compassed me about;
th' assembly me beset of the wicked; they pierced through my hands, also my feet.
- 17 My bones I may them number all:
they lookt, they did me view:
- 18 My cloths among them they did part:
and lot for my coat threw.
- 19 But thou Lord be not far, my strength, to help me hasten thou.
- 20 My soule from sword, my darling from the powre of dogs rescue.
- 21 And from the mouth of the Lion give me salvation free:
for thou from hornes of Vnicornes answer hast given mee.
- 22 Thy name, I will declare to them that Brethren are to mee:
in midst of congregation
I will give prayse to thee.
- (3.)
- 23 Yee that doe feare the Lord prayse him, all Iacobs seed prayse yee, him glorify, & dread him all yee Israels seed that bee.
- 24 For he the poors affliction loaths not, nor doth despise; nor hides his face from him, but heare
when unto him hee cryes:

PSALM xxii, xxiii.

- 25 Concerning thee shall be my prayse
in the great assembly:
before them that him reverence performe my vowes will I.
- 26 The meek shall eat & be suffic'd: Iehovah prayse shall they that doe him seek: your heart shall live unto perpetuall aye.
- 27 All ends of th'earth remember shall
and turne unto the Lord:
and thee all heathen-families to worship shall accord.
- 28 Because unto Iehovah doth
the kingdome appertaine:
and he among the nations is ruler Sovereaigne.
- 29 Earths-fat-ones, eat & worship shall:
all who to dust descend, (though none can make alive his soule) before his face shall bend.
- 30 With service a posterity him shall attend upon;
to God it shall accounted bee
a generation.
- 31 Come shall they, & his righteousness by them declar'd shall bee, unto a people yet unborne, that done this thing hath hee.

23 A Psalm of David.

THe Lord to mee a shepheard is,
want therefore shall not I.

PSALME XXIII, XXIII.

- 2 Hee in the folds of tender-grasse, doth cause mee downe to lie:
To waters calme me gently leads
- 3 Restore my soule doth hee:
he doth in paths of righteousnes:
for his names sake leade mee.
- 4 Yea though in valley of deaths shade
I walk, none ill I'le feare:
because thou art with mee, thy rod, and staffe my comfort are.
- 5 For mee a table thou hast spread,
in presence of my foes:
thou dost annoynt my head with oyle,
my cup it over-flowes.
- 6 Goodnes & mercy surely shall
all my dayes follow mee:
and in the Lords house I shall dwell so long as dayes shall bee.

Iehovah, puissant,

- 9 Yee gates lift-up your heads,

Psalme 25

A psalme of David.

PSALM

PSALME XXV.

I Lift my soule to thee o Lord.

My God I trust in thee, let mee not be asham'd: nor let my foes joy over mee.

3 Yea, all that wait on thee shall not,
be fill'd with shamefulness:

but they shall be ashamed all,
who without cause transgresse.

4 Thy wayes, Iehovah, make mee know, thy paths make me discern.

5 Cause mee my steps to order well,
in thy truth, & mee learne,

For thou God of my saving health,
on thee I wait all day.

6 Thy bowels, Lord, & thy mercyes minde; for they are for aye.

7 Sinnes of my youth remember not,
neither my trespasses:

after thy mercy minde thou mee
o Lord for thy goodnes.

8 Good and upright God is, therefore will sinners teach the way.

9 The meek he'le guide in judgement: & will teach the meek his way.

10 Iehovahs paths they mercy are,
all of them truth also;

to them that keep his covenant, and testimonies do.

11 For thy names sake o Iehovah, freely doe thou remitt

because that great is it.
- 12 Who fears the Lord, him hee will teach the way that he shall chuse.
- 13 his soule shall dwell at ease, his seed as heirs the earth shall vse.
- 14 The secret of God is with those that doe him reverence:
and of his covenant he them will give intelligence.
- 15 Mine eyes continually are upon Iehovah set:
for it is hee that will bring forth
my feet out of the net.
- 16 Vnto me-wards turne thou thy face,
and on mee mercy show:
because I solitary am afflicted poore also.
- 17 My hearts troubles enlarged are;
from my distresse me bring.
- 18 See mine affliction, & my paine;
and pardon all my sin.
- 19 Mark my foes; for they many are,
and cruelly mee hate,
- 20 My soule keep, free mee; nor let mee be sham'd, who on thee wait.
- 21 Let soundnes, & uprightnesse keep mee: for I trust in thee.
- 22 Israel from his troubles all,
o God, doe thou set free.

25 A psalme of david.

PSALM

PSALME xxvi, xxvii.

- I Vdgeme, o Lord, for I have walkt in mine integrity:
and I have trusted in the Lord,
therefore flyde shall not I.
- 2 Examine mee, Lord, & mee prove;
my reins, & my heart try.
- 3 For thy graec is before mine eyes;
and in thy truth walk I.
- 4 I sat not with vaine men, nor goe with men themselves that hide.
- 5 Evill mens company I hate:
nor will with vile abide.
- 6 In cleanness, Lord, I'le wash mine hands,
so I'le thine altar sound:
- 7 That I may preach with thankfull-voyce, and all thy prayfes sound.
- 8 The habitation of thy house, Lord, dearly love doe I,
the place and tabernacle of thy glorious majesty.
- 9 My soule with sinners gather not,
with men of blood my life.
- 10 In whose hand 's guile, in whose right hand bribery is full rife.
- 11 Redeeme, & pittie mee, for I'le walk in mine uprightnesse.
- 12 My foot stands right: in th' assembly
I will Iehovah blesse.

27 A Psalme of David.

THe Lord my light, & my health is,
what shall make me dismaide?

PSALM XXVIT:

The Lord is my lifes-strength, of whom should I then be afraid?

2 When wicked men, mine enemies, and my foes in battel;
against mee come, to eat my flesh, themselves stumbled & fell.

3 If that an hoast against mee camp, my heart undaunted is:
if war against mee should arise,
I am secure in this.

4 One thing of God I asked have,
which I will still request:
that I may in the house of God,
all dayes of my life rest:

To see the beauty of the Lord,
and in his Temple seeke.

5 For in his tent in th'evill-day, hidden hee will mee keepe:

Hee will me hide in secrecy of his pavillion:

and will me highly lift upon the rocks-munition.

6 Moreover at this-time my head lifted on high shall bee, above mine enemies, who doe about encompasse mee.

Therefore in's tent I'le sacrifice, of joye an offering,

unto Iehovah, sing will I, yea, I will prayses sing.

PSALME XXVII.

- 7 When as I with my voyce doe cry,
mee, o Iehovah, heare,
have mercy also upon mee,
and unto mee answer.
- 8 When thou didst say, seek yee my face,
my heart sayd unto thee,
thy countenance, o Iehovah,
it shall be fought by mee.
- 9 Hide not thy face from mee, nor off in wrath thy servant cast:
God of my health, leave, leave not mee,
my helper been thou hast.
- 10 My father & my mother both though they doe mee forsake, yet will Iehovah gathering unto himselfe me take.
- 11 Iehovah, teach thou mee the way, and be a guide to mee
in righteous path, because of them

- 12 Give mee not up unto the will of my streight-enemies:
for witnessse false against me stand,
and breath out cruelties.
- 13 I should have fainted, had not I believed for to see, Iehovahs goodnes in the land of them that living bee.

Psalme 28.

A psalme of David.

IEHOVAH, unto thee I cry,
my Rock, be thou not deafe me fro:
lest thou be dumb from mee & I be like them downe to pit that go.

2 Heare thou the voyce of my request for grace, when unto thee I cry:
when I lift up mine hands unto thine Oracle of Sanctity.

3 With ill men draw me not away, with workers of unrighteousnes, that with their neighbours peace doe speak,
but in their hands is wickednes.

Give thou to them like to their works and like the evill of their deeds:
give them like to their handy-works, and render unto them their meeds.

4 Because unto Iehovahs work they did not wise-attention yeild, neither unto his handy work, them he will wast, but not up-build.

5 The Lord be blest, for he hath heard the voyce of my requests for grace.

6 God is my strength, my shield, in him my heart did trust; & helpt I was:
Therefore my heart will gladnes shew,
and with my song I'le him confesse.

Gods voyce is glorious,

7 Gods voyce divides the flames of fire.

8 Iehovahs voyce doth make the Cadesh-defart shake.

9 The Lords voyce makes the hindes to calve, and makes the forrest bare:
and in his temple every one his glory doth declare.

10 The Lord fate on the flouds: the Lord

Pfalme 30

A Psalme & Song, at the dedication of the house of David.

IEHOVAH, I will thee extoll, for thou hast lift up mee;
and over mee thou hast not made my foes joyfull to bee.

2 O Lord my God, to thee I cry'de and thou hast made mee whole.

3 Out of the grave, o Iehovah, thou hast brought up my soule:

4 Thou mad'st mee live, I went not downe to pit. Sing to the Lord,

5 For but a moment in his wrath;

weeping may lodge with us a night but joye at break of day.

6 I sayd in my prosperity,
I shall be moved never.

7 Lord by thy favour thou hast made my mountaine stand fast ever:
Thou hidst thy face, I troubled was.

8 I unto thee did cry,
o Lord: also my humble suit unto the Lord made I.

9 What gaine is in my blood; when I
into the pit goe downe?
shall dust give glory unto thee?
shall it thy truth make knowne?

10 Doe thou mee o Iehovah, heare, and on mee mercy have:
Iehovah, o bee thou to mee
an helper me to save.

11 Thou into dancing for my sake converted hast my sadnes:
my sackcloth thou unloosed hast,
and girded me with gladnes:

12 That sing to thee my glory may,
and may not silent bee:

o Lord my God, I will give thanks for evermore to thee.

PSALM xxxi. 29

- IN thee, o Lord, I put my trust,
 let me be shamed never:

- 2 Bow downe to mee thine eare, with speed let mee deliverance have:
 be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence mee to save.
- 3 Because thou unto mee a rock and my fortresse wilt bee:
 therefore for thy names sake doe thou, leade mee & guide thou mee.
- 4 Doe thou mee pull out of the net, which they have for mee layd so privily: because that thou art to mee a sure ayd.
- 5 Into thy hands my spirit I reposing doe commit:
 Iehovah God of verity,
 thou hast redeemed it.
- 6 I hated them that have regard to lying vanity:
 7 but I in God trust. I'll be glad,
 and joy in thy mercy:
 Because thou hast considered
 my afflicting distresse;
 thou hast my soule acknowledged in painfull anguishes;

 thou mad'st my feet within the place

- 9 Have mercy upon mee, o Lord, for in distresse am I,
with grief mine eye consumed is,
my soule & my belly.
- 10 For my life with grief & my years with sighs are consumed:
because of my sin, my strength failes,
and my bones are wasted.
- 11 To all my foes I was a scorne, chiefly my neighbours to;
a feare to freinds: they that saw mee without, did flye me fro.
- 12 I am forgot as a dead man that's out of memory:
and like a vessel that is broke ev'n such a one am I.
- 13 Because that I of many men
the flandering did heare, round about me on every side
there was exceeding feare:
While as that they did against mee counsell together take, they craftily have purposed my life away to make.
- 14 But o Iehovah, I in thee my confidence have put 18 Let lying lips be silenced, that against men upright

in pride, & in despight.

19 How great 's thy goodnes, thou for the which thou work'st for them that thee trust, before the Sonnes of men.

20 Thou in the secret of thy face, in a pavillion, from the strife of tongues, thou wilt them hide.

as lambs fat shall decay:
they shall consume: yea into smoake they shall consume away.

- 21 The man ungodly borroweth,
but he doth not repay:
but he that righteous is doth shew mercy, & gives away.
- 22 For such as of him blessed bee,
the earth inherit shall,
and they that of him cursed are,
by cutting downe shall fall.
- 23 The foot-steps of a godly man they are by Iehovah established: & also hee delighteth in his way.
- 24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be utterly downe cast:

because

PSALM xxxvii.

because Iehovah with his hand doth underprop him fast.

25 I have been young & now am old;
yet have I never seen
the just man left, nor that his seed for bread have beggars been.

26 But every day hee's mercifull, and lends: his seed is blest.

27 Depart from evill, & doe good:
and ever dwell at rest.

28 Because the Lord doth judgement love, his Saints forsakes not hee;
kept ever are they: but cut off the sinners seed shall bee.

29 The just inherit shall the land, and therein ever dwell.

30 The just mans mouth wisdom doth speak, his tongue doth judgement tell.

31 The law of his God is in's heart:
none of his steps slideth.

32 The wicked watcheth for the just,
and him to slay seeketh.

33 Iehovah will not such a one relinquish in his hand, neither will he condemne him when adjudged he doth stand.

34 Wayt on the Lord, & keep his way, and hee shall thee exalt th'earth to inherit: when cut off the wicked see thou shalt.

PSALME xxxvii, xxxviii.

- 35 The wicked men I have beheld in mighty pow'r to bee:
also himfelfe spreading abroad
like to a green-bay-tree.
- 36 Nevertheleffe he past away,
and loe, then was not hee;
moreover I did seek for him,
but found hee could not bee.
- 37 Take notice of the perfect man, and the upright attend:
because that unto such a man peace is his latter end.
- 38 But such men that transgressors are together perish shall:
the latter end shall be cut off of the ungodly all,
- 39 But the salvation of the just doth of Iehovah come:
he is their strength to them in times that are most troublesome.
- 40 Yea, help & free them will the Lord:
he shall deliver them from wiced men, because that they doe put their trust in him.

Pfalme 38

A psalme of David,
to bring to remembrance.

LORD, in thy wrath rebuke me not:
nor in thy hot rage chasten mee.

2 Because thine hand doth presse me sore:
and in me thy shafts fastened bee.

3 There

PSALM xxxviii.

3 There is no soundnes in my flesh, because thine anger I am in:
nor is there any rest within my bones, by reason of my sin.

4 Because that mine iniquities ascended are above my head:
like as an heavy burden, they
to heavy upon me are layd.

5 My wounds stink, and corrupt they be:
my foolishnes doth make it so.

6 I troubled am, & much bow'd downe;
all the day long I mourning goe.

7 For with foule sores my loynes are fill'd:
& in my flesh is no soundnes.

8 I'me weak & broken sore; I roar'd because of my hearts restlesnes.

9 All my desire's before thee, Lord;
nor is my groaning hid from thee.

10 My heart doth pant, my strength me fails:
& mine eye sight is gone from mee.

11 My freinds & lovers from my sore stand off: off stand my kinsmen eke.

12 And they lay snares that seek my life, that seek my hurt, they mischief speak,

13 And all day long imagin guile,
But as one deafe, I did not heare, and as a dumb man I became as if his mouth not open were.

14 Thus was I as man that heares not,
& in whose mouth reproofes none were.

15 because

PSALME xxxviii.

- 15 Because o Lord, in thee I hope:
o Lord my God, thou wilt mee heare.
- 16 For sayd I, lest or'e me they joy:
when my foot slips, they vaunt the more
- 17 themselves 'gainst me. For I to halt am neere, my grief's still mee before.
- 18 For my transgression I'le declare;
I for my sins will sorry bee.
- 19 But yet my lively foes are strong,
who falsly hate me, multiplie.
- 20 Moreover they that doe repay evill in stead of good to mee, because I follow what is good,
to mee they adversaryes bee.
- 21 Iehovah, doe not mee forsake:
my God o doe not farre depart
- 22 from mee. Make hast unto mine ayd, o Lord who my salvation art.

Psalme 39

To the chief musician, even to Ieduthun,
a Psalme of David.

- I Sayd, I will look to my wayes, lest I sin with my tongue: I'le keep my mouth with bit, while I the wicked am among.
- 2 With silence tyed was my tongue,
my mouth I did refraine,
From speaking that thing which is good,
and stirred was my paine.
- 3 Mine heart within me waxed hot,
while I was musing long,

I inkindled

PSALM xxxix.

- in kindled in me was the fire;
 then spake I with my tongue.
- 4 Mine end, o Lord, & of my dayes let mee the measure learne;
 that what a momentany thing
 I am I may discerne.
- 5 Behold thou mad'st my dayes a span,
 mine age as nought to thee:
 surely each man at's best estate, is wholly vanity. Selah.
- 6 Sure in a vaine show walketh man;
 sure stir'd in vaine they are:
 he heaps up riches, & knows not who shall the same gather.
- (2)
- 7 And now, o Lord what wayt I for?
 my hope is upon thee.
- 8 Free me from all my trespasses:
 the fooles scorne make not mee.
- 9 I was dumb nor opned my mouth,
 this done because thou hast.
- 10 Remove thy stroke away fom mee:
 by thy hands blow I wast.
- 11 When with rebukes thou dost correct man for iniquity;
 thou blast's his beauty like a moth:
 sure each man's vanity. Selah.
- 12 Heare my pray'r, Lord, hark to my cry,
 be not still at my tears:
 for stranger, & pilgrim with thee,
 I 'me, as all my fathers.

PSALME xxxix, xl.

13 O turne aside a while from mee, that I may strength recall:
before I doe depart from hence,
and be noe more at all.

Pfalme 40.

To the chief musician, a psalme-
of David.

With expectation for the Lord
I wayted patiently,
and hee inclined unto mee.
also he heard my cry.

2 He brought mee out of dreadfull-pir, out of the miery clay:
and set my feet upon a rock,
hee stablished my way.

3 And in my mouth put a new song, of prayse our God unto:
many shall see, & feare, upon the Lord shall trust also.

4 Blest is the man that on the Lord maketh his trust abide:
nor doth the proud respect, nor such
to lies as turne aside.

5 O thou Iehovah, thou my God, hast many a wonder wrought:
and likewise towards us thou hast conceived many a thought.

Their summe cannot be reck'ned up^c in order unto thee:
would I declare & speak of them, beyond account they bee.

PSALM xl.

- 6 Thou sacrifice & offering wouldst not; thou boar'st mine care:
burnt offering, & sin offering thou neither didst require.
- 7 Then sayd I: loe, I come: ith books
rolle it is writt of mee.
- 8 To doe thy will, God, I delight:
thy laws in my heart bee.
- 9 In the great congregation
thy righteousnes I show:
loe, I have not refraynd my lips, Iehovah, thou dost know.
- 10 I have not hid thy righteousnes within my heart alone:
I have declar'd thy faithfullnes and thy salvation:
Thy mercy nor thy truth have I from the great Church conceald.
- 11 Let not thy tender mercyes bee from mee o Lord with-held.
Let both thy kindnes & thy truth keep me my life throughout.
- 12 Because innumerable ills have compast mee about:
My sins have caught me so that I not able am to see:
more are they then hairs of my head, therefore my heart fails mee

- 14 At once abasht & sham'd let bee who seek my soule to waste:
Let them be driven back, & sham'd, that wish me misery.
- 15 Let them be waste, to quit their shame, that say to me, fy fy.
- 16 Let all be glad, & joy in thee, that seek thee: let them say who thy salvation love, the Lord be magnifyde alway.
- 17 I both distrest & needy am,
the Lord yet thinks on mee:
my help & my deliverer thou my God, doe not tarry.

Psalme 41

To the chief musician, a psalme
of David.

Blessed is hee that wisely doth unto the poore attend:
the Lord will him deliverance in time of trouble send.

2 Him God will keep, & make to live, on earth hee blest shall be,
nor doe thou him unto the will give of his enemye.

3 Vpon the bed of languishing, the Lord will strengthen him:
thou also wilt make all his bed within his sicknes time.

4 I sayd, Iehouah, o be thou:

PSALM xl.

mercifull unto mee;
 heale thou my soule, because that I have sinned against thee.

5. Those men that be mine enemies, with evill mee defame:
 when will the time come hee shall dye,
 and perish shall his name?
 6. And if he come to see mee, hee speaks vanity: his heart sin to it selfe heaps, when hee goes forth hee doth it impart.

7. All that me hate, against mee they together whisper still:
 against me they imagin doe to mee malicious ill.
 8. Thus doe they say some ill disease, unto him cleaveth sore:
 and seing now he lyeth downe,
 he shall rise up noe more.
 9. Moreover my familiar freind, on whom my trust I set,
 his heele against mee lifted up,
 who of my bread did eat.
 10. But Lord me pittie, & mee rayse, that I may them requite.
 11. By this I know assuredly, in mee thou dost delight:
 For o're mee triumphs not my foe.
 12. And mee, thou dost mee stay, in mine integrity; & setst from everlasting been,

also unto everlasting:

PSALME 42

To the chief musician, Maschil, for the Sonnes of Korah.

Like as the Hart panting doth bray
after the water brooks, even in such wise o God, my soule, after thee panting looks.

2 For God, even for the living God, my soule it thirsteth sore:
oh when shall I come & appeare,
the face of God before.

3 My teares have been unto mee meat, by night also by day, while all the day they unto mee where is thy God doe say.

4 When as I doe in minde record these things, then me upon I doe my soule out poure, for I with multitude had gone:
With them unto Gods house I went,
with voyce of joy & prayse:

I with

PSALM xl ii.

I with a multitude did goe that did keepe-holy-days.

¶ My soule why art cast downe? & art stirr'd in mee: thy hope place in God, for yet him prayse I shall for the help of his face.

6 My God, my soule in mee's cast downe, therefore thee minde I will from Iordanes & Hermonites land, and from the litle hill.

7 At the noyse of thy water spouts deep unto deep doth call:
thy waves they are gone over mee,
also thy billowes all.

8 His loving kindnes yet the Lord command will in the day:
and in the night his song with mee,
to my lifes God I'le pray.

9 I unto God will say, my Rock why hast thou forgot mee?
why goe I sad, by reason of pressure of th'emie.

10 As with a sword within my bones
my foes reproach mee do:
while all the day, where is thy God?
they doe say mee unto,

11 My soule o wherefore dost thou bowe
thy selfe downe heavily,
and wherefore in mee makest thou a stirr tumultuously?

Hope

PSALME xl ii, xl iii.

Hope thou in God, because I shall
with prayse him yet advance:
who is my God, also he is health of my countenance.

Pfalme 43.

IVdge me, o God, & plead my cause from nation mercyleffe;
from the guilefull & man unjust,
o send thou me redresse.

2 For of my strength thou art the God, why cast'st thou mee thee fro:
why goe I mourning for the fore oppression of the foe?

3 Thy light o send out & thy truth, let them lead, & bring mee, unto thy holy hill, & where thy tabernacles bee.

4 Then will I to Gods Altar goe, to God my joyes gladnes:
upon the Harp o God my God
I will thy prayse expresse.

5 My soule o wherfore dost thou bowe
thy selfe downe heavily;
and wherfore in mee makest thou a stirre tumultuously?

Hope thou in God, because I shall
with prayse him yet advance:
who is my God, also he is
health of my countenance.

PSAL-

PSALM xliii.

WEE with our eares have heard, o. God,
our fathers have us told,
what works thou diddest in their dayes,
in former dayes of old.

2 How thy hand drave the heathen out, and them thou planted hast;
how thou the people didst afflict, and thou didst them out-cast.

3 For they got not by their owne sword
the lands possession, neither yet was it their owne arme wrought their salvation:
But thy right hand, thine arme also,
thy countenances light;
because that of thine owne good will thou didst in them delight.

4 Thou art my king, o mighty God, thou dost the same indure:
doe thou for Iacob by command deliverances procure.

5 Through thee as with a horne wee will push downe our enemies:
through thy name will wee tread them downe that up against us rise.

6 Because that I will in no wise any affiance have,
upon my bow, neither is it my sword that shall mee save.

7 But from our enemies us thou sav'd, and put our foes to shame.

8 In God wee boast all the day long,

and PSALME xliv.

and for aye prayse thy name.

Selah.

(2)

- 9 But thou hast cast us off away, thou makest us also to be asham'd; neither dost thou forth with our armies goe.
- 10 Vs from before the enemy
thou makest back recoyle:
likewise they which our haters bee,
for themselves us doe spoyle.
- 11 Thou hast us given like to sheep to slaughter that belong:
also thou hast us scattered the heathen folk among.
- 12 Thou dost thy people set to sale whereby no wealth doth rise:
neither dost thou obtaine increase of riches by their price.
- 13 Vnto our neighbours a reproach thou doest us expose,
a scorne we are & mocking stock,
to them that us inclose.
- 14 Among the heathen people thou a by word dost us make:
also among the nations,
at us their heads they shake.
- 15 Before me my confusion
it is continually,
and of my countenance the shame hath over covered mee.
- 16 Because of his voyce that doth scorne,

PSALM xliv.

and scoffingly despight:
by reason of the enemy,
and selfe revenging wight.

(3)

- 17 All this is come on us, wee yet have not forgotten thee:
neither against thy covenant have wee dealt faithleslie.
- 18 Our heart is not turn'd back, nor have our steps from thy way stray'd;
- 19 Though us thou brake in dragons place,
and hid us in deaths shade.
- 20 had wee forgot Gods name, or stretcht to a strange God our hands:
- 21 Shall not God search this out? for hee hearts secrets understands.
- 22 Yea, for thee all day wee are kil'd:
counted as sheep to slay.
- 23 Awake, why sleepest thou, Lord? arise, cast us not off for aye.
- 24 Thy countenance away from us o wherefore dost thou hide?
of our grief & oppression forgetfull dost abide.
- 25 For our soule is bowd downe to dust:
to earth cleaves our belly.
- 25 Rise for our help, & us redeeme, because of thy mercy.

Psalme 45

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim, for the sonnes of Korah, Maschil a song of loves.

PSAL.

P S A L M E xl, xlv.

MY heart good mater boyleth forth, my works touching the King

I speak: my tongue is as the pen of Scribe swiftly writing.

2 Fairer thou art then sonnes of men, grace in thy lips is shed:

because of this the Lord hath thee for evermore blessed.

3 Thy wasting sword o mighty one gird thou upon thy thigh:

thy glorious-magnificence, and comely majesty.

4 Ride forth upon the word of truth, meeknes & righteousness:

and thy right hand shall lead thee forth in works of dreadfulness.

5 Within the heart of the kings foes thine arrows piercing bee:

whereby the people overcome, shall fall downe under thee.

6 Thy throne o God, for ever is,
the scepter of thy state

7 right scepter is. Justice thou lov'st, but wickednes dost hate:

Because of this, God ev'n thy God hee hath annoynted thee, with oyle of gladnes above them, that thy companions bee.

all of thy garments had:

kings daughters present were,
the Queen is set at thy right hand in fine gold of Ophir.

10 Harken o daughter, & behold, doe thou incline thine eare:
doe thou forget thine owne people,
and house of thy father.

11 So shall the king delighting rest himselſe in thy beautie:
and bowing downe worship thou him, because thy Lord is hee.

12 Then ſhall be preſent with a gift
the daughter there of Tyre:
the wealthy ones of the people thy favour ſhall deſire.

13 The daughter of the king ſhe is all glorious within:
and with imbroideries of gold,
her garments wrought have been.

14 She is led in unto the king in robes with needle wrought:
the virgins that doe follow her

Pfalme 46

To the chief musician, for the sonnes of Korah, a song upon Alemoth.

GOD is our refuge, strength, & help in troubles very neere.

- 2 Therefore we will not be afrayd, though th'earth removed were.
Though mountaines move to midst of seas 3 Though waters roaring make and troubled be, at whose swellings although the mountaines shake. Selah.
4 There is a river streames whereof shall rejoyce Gods city:
the holy place the tent wherin abideth the most high.
5 God is within the midst of her,
moved shee shall not bee:
God shall be unto her an help, in the morning early.
6 The nations made tumultuous noyse, the kingdomes moved were:
he did give forth his thundering voyce
the earth did melt with feare.

th'eternall Jehovah:

PSALM xlvi, xlvii.

which Iehovah hath wrought,
the fearfull desolations, which on the earth he brought.
- 9 Vnto the utmost ends of th'earth

the speare he cuts, the bowe he breaks, in fire the chariots burnes.

exalted be will I
among the heathen: through the earth th'eternall Iehovah:

the God of Iacob is for us

Pfalme 47.

To the chief musician: a psalme for the Sonnes of Korah.

CLap hands all people, shout for joy,
to God with voyce of singing mirth:

a great King over all the earth.
- 3 People to us he doth subdue, and nations under our feet lay.
- 4 For us our heritage he chose,
his deare Iacobs glory. Selah.

Psalme 48

To the chief musician, a song & psalme for the sonnes of Korah.

Great is Iehovah, & he is to be prayesd greatly within the city of our God, in his mountaine holy.

2 For situation beautifull, the joy of the whole earth mount Sion; the great Kings city on the sides of the north.

3 God in her pallaces is knowne to be a refuge high.

4 For loe, the kings assembled were:
they past together by.

5 They saw, & so they merveiled, were troubled, fled for feare.

6 Trembling seiz'd on them there & paine like her that childe doth beare.

in our Gods citty, God will it stablish eternally.

Selah.

9 O God we have had thoughts upon thy free benignity, within the very midle part of thy temple holy,

10 According to thy name, o God so is thy prayse unto the ends of earth: thy right hand's full of righteousnes also.

11 Let the mountaine Sion rejoyce, and triumph let them make who are the daughters of Iudah, ev'n for thy judgements sake.

and goe about her yee,
and doe yee reckon up thereof
the tow'rs that therein bee.

13 Doe yee full well her bulwarks mark, that to the generation

to come yee may it tell.

he guides us in our way.

PSALM

P̄SALME xlix.

Pfalme 49

To the chief musician a psalme for the
sonnes of Korah.

HEare this all people, all give care that dwell the world all o're.

2 Sonnes both of low, & higher men, joyntly both rich & poore.

3 My mouth it shall variety of wisdom be speaking:
and my hearts meditation shall be of understanding.

4 Vnto a speech proverbiall
I will mine eare incline;
I will also upon the Harp open my dark doctrine.

5 Why should I be at all afrayd in dayes that evill bee:
when that my heeles iniquity about shall compasse mee.

6 Those men that make their great estates their stay to trust unto,
who in the plenty of their wealth themselves doe boast also:

7 Ther 's not a man of them that can by any meanes redeeme his brother, nor give unto God enough to ransome him.

8 So deare their soules redemption is & ever ceaseth it.

PSALM xl ix.

- 9 That he should still for ever live and never see the pit.
- 10 For he doth see that wise man dyc,
the foole and brutish too to perish, & their rich estate to others leave they doo.
- 11 They think their houses are for aye to generations all their dwelling places, & their lands by their owne names they call.
- 12 Neverthelesse, in honour man, abideth not a night:
become he is just like unto
the beasts that perish quite.
- 13 This their owne way their folly is,
yet whatsoe're they say, their successors that follow them doe well approve. Selah.
- 14 Like sheep so are they layd in grave, death shall them feed upon;
& th' upright over them in morn shall have dominion.
And from the place where they doe dwell,
the beauty which they have,
shall utterly consume away in the devouring grave.
- (3)
- 15 But surely God redemption unto my soule will give,
even from the power of the grave, for he will me receive. Selah.

PSALME xlix, 1.

- 16 Be not afrayd when as a man in wealth is made to grow, and when the glory of his house abundantly doth flow.
- 17 Because he shall carry away nothing when he doth dye:
neither shall after him descend ought of his dignity.
- 18 And albeit that he his soule
in time of his life blest, and men will prayse thee, when as thou much of thy selfe makest.
- 19 He shall goe to his fathers race,
they never shall see light.
- 20 Man in honour, & know'th not, is like beasts that perish quite.

Psalme 50.

A psalme of Asaph.

THe mighty God, the Lord hath spoke,
and he the earth doth call,
from the uprising of the Sun, thereof unto the fall.

- 2 The mighty God hath clearly shyn'd out of the mount Sion, which is of beauty excellent
the full perfection.
- 3 Our God shall come, and not be still fire shall waste in his sight; and round about him shall be rayf'd a storme of vehement might.
- 4 His folk to judge he from above.

PSALM L.

- calls heavens, & earth likewise, 5 Bring mee my Saints, that cov'nant make with mee by sacrifice.
6 And the heavens shall his righteousness shew forth apparentlie:
because the mighty God himselfe a righteous judge will bee. Selah.

- 7 Heare, o my people, & I will speake, I will testify
also to thee o Israell,
I even thy God am I.
8 As for thy sacrifices I will finde no fault with thee, or thy burnt offrings, which have been
at all times before mee.
9 He take no bullocks, nor he-goates from house, or foldes of thine.
10 For Forrest beasts, & cattell all on thousand hills are mine.
11 The flying foules of the mountaines all of them doe I know:
and every wilde beast of the field it is with mee also.
12 If I were hungry I would not it unto thee declare:
for mine the habitable world,
and fullnes of it are.
13 Of bullocks eat the flesh, or drink
the blood of goates will I?
14 Thanks offer unto God, & pay thy vowes to the most high.

- 15 And in the day of trouble sore doe thou unto mee cry, and I will thee deliver, and thou mee shalt glorify.

(3)

- 16 But to the wicked God sayth, why dost thou the mention make of my statutes, why in thy mouth should'st thou my cov'nant take?

- 17 Sith thou dost hate teaching and dost my words behinde thee cast.

- 18 When thou didst see a thief, then thou with him consented hast;

And likewise with adulterers thy part hath been the same.

- 19 Thy mouth to evill thou dost give,
and guile thy tongue doth frame,

- 20 Thou sittest, thou dost speake against the man that is thy brother:

and thou dost flander him that is the sonne of thine owne mother.

- 21 These things hast thou committed, and in silence I kept close:

that I was altogether like thy selfe, thou didst suppose:

I'le thee reprove, & in order before thine eyes them set.

- 22 O therefore now consider this

Lest I you teare, & there be not any deliverer.

23 He glorifieth mee that doth prayse unto mee offer.

24 And hee that doth order aright
his conversation,
to him will I give that hee may see Gods salvation.

Pfalme 51.

To the chief musician, a psalme of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in unto Bathsheba.

HAve mercy upon mee o God,
in thy loving kyndnes:
in multitude of thy mercyes blot out my trespasses.

2 From mine iniquity doe thou wash mee most perfectly, and also from this sin of mine doe thou mee purify.

3 Because, of my transgressions, my selfe doe take notice, and sin that I committed have before mee ever is.

4 Gainst thee, thee only I have sin'd this ill done thee before:
when thou speakst just thou art, & cleare when thou dost judge therefore.

5 Behold, how in iniquity
I did my shape receive:
also my mother that mee bare
in sin did mee conceive.

PSALME L

- 6 Behold, thou dost desire the truth within the inward part:
and thou shalt make mee wisdom know in secret of my heart.
- 7 With hysope doe me purify,
I shall be cleansed so:
doe thou mee wash, & then I shall be whiter then the snow.
- 8 Of joy & of gladnes doe thou make me to heare the voyce:
that so the bones which thou hast broke may cheerfully rejoyce.
- 9 From the beholding of my sin hide thou away thy face:
also all mine iniquities doe utterly deface.
- (2)
- 10 A cleane heart (Lord) in me create,
also a spirit right
- 11 in me renew. O cast not mee away out of thy sight;
Nor from me take thy holy spirit.
- 12 Restore the joy to mee of thy salvation, & uphold me with thy spirit free.
- 13 Then will I teach thy wayes to those that work iniquitie:
and by this meanes shall sinners bee converted unto thee.
- 14 O God, God of my health, set mee free from bloud guiltines,

PSALM L r.

- and so my tongue shall joyfully
sing of thy righteousness.
- 15 O Lord-my-stay, let thou my lips by thee be opened,
and by my mouth thy praises shall be openly shewed.
- 16 For thou desir'st not sacrifice,
it would I freely bring:
neither dost thou contentment take in a whole burnt offering.
- 17 The sacrifices of the Lord
they are a broken sprite:
God, thou wilt not despise a heart that's broken, & contrite.
- 18 In thy good pleasure o doe thou doe good to Sion hill:
the walles of thy Ierusalem o doe thou build up still.
- 19 The sacrifice of justice shall please thee, with burnt offering, and whole burnt offering; then they shall calves to thine Altar bring.

Another of the same.

- O GOD, have mercy upon mee, according to thy kindenes deare:
and as thy mercyes many bee,
quite doe thou my transgressions cleare.
From my perversies mee wash through,
and from my sin mee purify.
For my transgressions I doe know,

before

PSALME Lr.

before mee is my sin dayly.

4 Gainst thee, thee only sin'd have I, & done this evill in thy sight:
that when thou speakst thee justify men may, and judging cleare thee quite.

5 Loe, in injustice I hape't I was:
in sin my mother conceav'd mee.

6 Loe, thou in th'inwards truth lov'd haz:
and made mee wise in secrecie.

7 Purge me with hyssope, & I cleare shall be; mee wash, & then the snow

8 I shall be whiter. Make me heare Ioy & gladnes, the bones which so

Thou broken hast joy cheerly shall.

9 Hyde from my sins thy face away blot thou iniquities out all which are upon mee any way.

10 Create in mee cleane heart at last God: a right spirit in me new make.

11 Nor from thy presence quite me cast, thy holy spright nor from me take.

12 Mee thy salvations joy restore, and stay me with thy spirit free.

13 I wil, transgressors teach thy lore, and sinners shall be turnd to thee.

14 Deliver mee from guilt of bloud, o God, God of my health-saving, which if thou shalt vouchsafe, aloud thy righteousness my tongue shall sing.

15 My lips doe thou, o Lord, unclofe, PSALM LI.

and thy prayse shall my mouth forth show 16 For sacrifice thou hast not chose;
 that I should it on thee bestow:

Thou joy'st not in burnt sacrifice.

17 Gods sacrifices are a sp'ryte broken; o God, thou'lt not despise, a heart that's broken & contrite.

18 In thy good will doe thou bestow on Sion goodnes bounteouslie: Ieruselems walles that lye so low doe thou vouchsafe to edifie.

19 Then shalt thou please to entertaine the sacrifices with content of righteousnes, the offrings slaine, which unto thee wee shall present,

Together with the offerings such as in fire whole burned are:
 and then they shall their bullocks bring,
 offrings to be on thine altar.

Pfalme 52

To the chief musician, Maschil. a psalme of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saule, & sayd unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimilech.

O Man of might, wherefore dost thou thus boast thy selfe in ill?
 the goodnes of the mighty God endureth ever still.

2 Thy tongue presumptuously doth mischievous things devise:
 it is like to a razor sharp, working

PSALME LII, l. III.

working deceitfull lies.

- 3 Thou lovest evil more then good,
more to speak lies then right.
- 4 O guilefull tongue, thou dost in all devouring words delight.
- 5 God shall likewise for evermore destroying thee deface, he shall take thee away, & pluck thee from thy dwelling place,
And also root thee out from off the land of the living. Selah.
- 6 The righteous also shall it see and feare, at him laughing.
- 7 Loe, this the man that made not God his strength: but trusted in his store of wealth, himselfe made strong in his mischievous sin.
- 8 But in the house of God am I like a greene Olive-tree:
I trust for ever & for aye,
in Gods benignitie.
- 9 Thee will I prayse for evermore, because thou hast done this:
and I'le wayt on thy name, for good before thy Saints that is.

Psalme 53.

To the chief musician upon Mahalath, Maschil. a psalme of David.

THe foo!e in's heart faith, there's no God;
they are corrupt, have done
abominable practises;

PSALM LIII, liii.

- that doth good there is none.
- 2 The Lord from heaven looked downe
on sonnes of men, to see
if any that doth understand,
that seeketh God there bee.
- 3 All are gone back, together they
ev'n filthy are become:
and there is none that doeth good,
noe not so much as one.
- 4 The workers of iniquities:
have they noe knowledge all?
who eat my people: they eat bread;
and on God doe not call.
- 5 Greatly they fear'd, where noe feare was, & gainst thee in camp that lyes his bones God scattered; & them sham'd for God doth them despise.
- 6 Who Israells health from Sion gives?
his folks captivitie
when God shall turne: Jacob shall joye glad Israell shall bee.

Psalme 54

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil, psalms of David, when the Ziphims came & sayd to Saul, doth not David hide himselfe with us?

- Preserve mee, by thy name, o God, & by thy strength judge mee.

set God themselves before. Selah.

2 Loe, God helps mee, the Lord's with them that doe my soule sustaine.

3 He shall reward ill to my foes:
them in thy truth restrayne.

4 Vnto thee sacrifice will I,
with voluntarines;

Lord, to thy name I will give prayse, because of thy goodnes.

5 For he hath mee delivered, out of all miseryes:

and his desire mine eye hath seen upon mine enemyes.

Psalme 55

To the chief musician on Neginoth, Maschil,
a psalme of David.

O GOD, doe thou give care unto my supplication:

and doe not hide thy selfe away from my petition.

2 Bee thou attentive unto mee, and answer mee returne,

I in my meditation
doe make a noyse & mourne.

3 Because of th' enemies voyce, because the wicked haue opprest, for they in justice on mee cast and in wrath mee detest.

4 My heart in mee is payn'd, on mee death's terrors fallen bee.

5 Trembling

PSALM LV.

5 Trembling & feare are on mee come, horror hath covered mee.

6 Then did I say, o who to mee wings of a dove will give;
that I might flie away & might in quiet dwelling live.

7 Loe, I would wander farre away, and in the defart rest. Selah,

8 Soone would I scape from windy storme, from violent tempest.

9 Lord bring on them destruction, doe thou their tongues divide;
for strife & violence I within the city have espy'd.

10 About it on the walles thereof, they doe walk night & day:
mischief also & sorrow doe
in midst of it stay.

11 In midst thereof there's wickednes; deceitfullnes also,
and out of the broad streets thereof guilefullnes doth not go.

12 For t'was no foe reproacht mee; then could I have borne; nor did my foe against me lift himseffe from him had I me hid.

13 But thou it was, the man that wert my well esteemed peere, which wast to mee my speciall guide,
and mine acquaintance neere,

PSALME Iv.

14 Wee did together counsell take in sweet society:
and wee did walk into the house of God in company.

15 Let death seize on them, & let them goe downe quick into bell:
for wickednes among them is in places where they dwell.

16 As for mee, I will call on God;
and mee the Lord save shall.

17 Ev'ning morn, & at noon will I pray, & aloud will call,

18 and he shall heare my voyce. He hath in peace my soule set free from warre that was 'gainst mee, because there many were with mee.

19 God shall heare, & them smite, ev'n he that doth of old abide; Selah.
because they have no change, therefore Gods feare they lay aside.

20 Gainst such as be at peace with him hee hath put forth his hand:
he hath also the covenant which he had made prophan'd.

21 His words then butter smoother were,
but warre in's heart: his words more then the oyle were softened but yet they were drawne swords.

22 Thy burden cast upon the Lord, and he sustaine thee shall:

PSALM 1v, 1vi.

nor shall he suffer righteous ones to be remov'd at all.

23 But thou o God, shalt downe to hell bring them who bloody bee, guilefull shall not live halfe their dayes:
but I will trust in thee.

Psalme 6.

To the chief musician upō Ionath Elem Recho--kim, Michtam of David, when the Philistims tooke him in Gath.

LORD, pittie mee, because man would up swallow mee:
and fighting all the day throughout,
opresse mee fore doth hee.

2 Mine enemies they would me swallow up dayly;
for they be many that doe fight against mee, o most high.

3 I'le put my trust in thee, what time I am afrayd.

4 In God I'le prayse his word, in God my confidence have stayd;
I will not be afrayd
what flesh can doe to mee.

5 All day they wrest my words: their thoughts for ill against me bee.

6 They joyne themselves together; themselves they closely hyde;
they mark my steps when for my soule wayting they doe abyde.

7 Shall they make an escape

by

PSALME Ivi, Iviir.

- by their iniquity;
thou in thine anger downe depresse
the folk, o God mighty.
- 8 My wandrings thou dost tell,
put thou my weeping teares into thy bottle; are they not within thy registers.
- 9 Then shall my foes turne back,
when I crye unto thee:
this I doe know assuredly,
because God is for mee.
- 10 In God I'le prayse his word:
the Lords word I will prayse.
- 11 In God I trust: I will not feare what man 'gainst mee can rayse.
- 12 Thy vowes on me o God; I'le render prayse to thee.
- 13 Because that thou my soule from death delivering dost free; Deliver wilt not thou
my feet from downe falling?
so that I may walk before God ith light of the living.

Pfalme 57

To the chief musician Altaschith, Michtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave.

O GOD, to me be mercifull, be mercifull to mee:
because my soule for shelter safe betakes it selfe to thee.

Yea in the shaddow of thy wings,
my refuge I have plac't, until

PSALM L vii.

untill these fore calamities shall quite be over past.

2 To God most high I cry: the God that doth for me performe.

3 He will from heaven send, & save mee from the spightfull scorne
Of him that would with greedy hast, swallow me vtterly: Selah.

the Lord from heaven will send forth his grace & verity.

4 My soule's 'mongst lions, & I lye with men on-fier-set:

mens sonnes whose teeth are spears, & shafts, whose tongues as swords are whet.

5 O God, doe thou exalt thy selfe,
above the heavens high:

up over all the earth also lifted be thy glory.

6 They for my steps prepar'd a net, my soule is bow'd; a pit

they dig'd before me, but themselves are fall'n in midst of it. Selah.

7 My heart o God, prepared is,
prepared is my heart,

sing will I, & sing prayse with psalmes.

8 Vp o my glorie start;

Wake Psaltery & Harp, I will awake in the morning.

9 Among the folk I'le prayse thee, Lord,
'mongst nations to thee sing.

PSALME I vii, I viii.

10 For great unto the heavens is thy mercifull bounty:
thy verity also doth reach unto the cloudy skye.

11 O God, doe thou exalt thy selfe,
above the heavens high:
up over all the earth also
lifted be thy glory.

Psalme 58

To the chief musician, Altaschiit, michtam of David.

DOe yee o congregation, indeed speak righteousness?
and o yee sons of earthly men, doe yee judge uprightnes?

2 Yea you in heart will working be injurious-wickednes;
and in the land you will weigh out your hands violentnes.

3 The wicked are estranged from the womb, they goe astray as foone as ever they are borne; uttering lyes are they.

4 Their poyson's like serpents poyson:
they like deafe Aspe, her eare

5 that stops. Though Charmer wisely charme, his voice she will not heare.

6 Within their mouth doe thou their teeth break out, o God most strong, doe thou Iehovah, the great teeth break of the lions young.

PSALM lviii, lix.

- 7- As waters let them melt away,
that run continually:
and when he bends his shafts, let them
as cut asunder bee.
- 8- Like to a snayle that melts, so let
each of them passe away;
like to a womans untimely birth see Sun that neuer they may.
- 9- Before your potts can feele the thornes,
take them away shall hee,
as with a whirlwinde both living,
and in his jealousie.
- 10- The righteous will rejoyce when as the vengeance he doth see:
his feet wash shall he in the blood of them that wicked bee.
- 11- So that a man shall say, surely for righteous there is fruit: sure there's a God that in the earth judgement doth execute.

Pfalme 59

To the chief musician Altaschith, Michtam of David: when Saul sent, & they watched the house to kill him.

- O GOD from them deliver mee that are mine enemies:
set thou me up on high from them that up against me rise.
- 2- Deliver mee from them that work grievous-iniquity:
and be a saviour unto mee:

from

from men that be bloody.

3 For loe, they for my soule lay wayt;
the strong causlesse combine against me, not for my crime, Lord, nor any sin of mine.

4 Without iniquity in me they run, & ready make themselves, doe thou behold, also unto my help awake.

5 Lord God of hoast, thou Israels God, rise to visit therefore all heathens; who sin wilfully, to them shew grace no more.

6 At ev'ning they returne, & like to dogs a noyse doe make;
and so about the city round a compasse they doe take.

7 Behold they belch out with their mouths, within their lips swords are:
for who is he (doe these men say) which us at all doth heare.

8 But thou o Lord, at them wilt laugh, and heathens all wilt mock.

9 And for his strength, I'le wayt on thee for God is my high Rock.

10 God of my mercy manyfold with good shall prevent mee:
and my desire upon my foes
the Lord will let mee see.

11 Slay them not, lest my folk forget:

but

PSALM Lix.

- but scatter them abroad by thy strong-power; & bring them downe, who art our shield o God.
- 12 For their mouths sin, & their lips words;
 and in their pride them take:
 and for their cursing, & lying which in their speech they make.
- 13 Consume in wrath, consume & let them be no more; that they may know that God in Iacob rules, to th'ends of th'earth. Selah.
- 14 And at ev'ning let them returne, and like dogs a noyse make;
 and so about the citty round a compasse let them take.
- 15 And let them wander up & downe seeking what they may eat, and if they be not fatiffyde,
 then let them grudge thereat.
- 16 But I will sing thy powre; & shout i'th mōrning thy kindenesse:
 for thou my towre & refuge art in day of my distresse.
- 17 Thou art my strength, & unto thee;
 sing psalmes of prayse will I:
 for God is mine high towre, he is the God of my mercy.

Toab returned, & smote of Edom in the valley

O GOD, thou hast rejected us, and scattered us abroad:
thou hast displeas'd been with us, returne to us o God.

2 The land to tremble thou hast caus'd, thou it a funder brake:
doe thou the breaches of it heale,
for it doth moveing shake.

3 Thou hast unto thy people shew'd things that are hard, thou hast also the cup of trembleing given to them to tast.

4 But unto them that doe thee feare, a Banner to display thou given hast to be lift up for thy truths sake. Selah.

5 That those who thy beloved are and thou o God, who with our hoasts

A psalme of David.

Doe thou mee lead unto the rock

like as it were a sword;
and bend their bowes to shoot their shafts ev'n a most bitter word:
- 4 That they in secrecie may shoot the perfect man to hitt.
suddenly doe they shoot at him, & never feare a whitt.
- 5 Them selves they in a matter ill encourage; how they may lay snares in secret, thus they talk;
who shall them see? they say.
- 6 They doe search out iniquity,
a search exact they keep:
both inward thought of euery man also the heart is deep.
- 7 But God shall shoot at them a shaft, be sudden their wound shall.
- 8 So that they shall make their owne tongue upon themselves to fall,
All that see them shall flee away.
- 9 All men shall feare, & tell the works of God, for his doeing they shall consider well.
- 10 The just shall in the Lord be glad,
and trust in him he shall:
and they that upright are in heart in him shall glory all.

Psalme 65

To the chief musician, a psalme and

PSALM

PSALM lxv.

O GOD, in Sion silently praise wayteth upon thee:
and thankfully unto thee shall the vow performed bee.

2 O thou that harken dost unto the prayr that men doe make, ev'n unto thee therefore all flesh themselves they shall betake.

3 Works of iniquitie they have prevailed against mee;
as for our trespasses they shall be purgde away by thee.

4 O blessed is the man of whom thou thy free choyce dost make;
and that he may dwell in thy courts him neere to thee dost take:

For with the good things of thy house be satisfide shall wee;
and with the holy things likewise that in thy temple bee.

5 In righteousness, thou, by the things that dreadfully are done, wilt answer give to us, o God,
of our salvation:

Upon whom all the ends of th'e earth
do confidently stay, & likewise they that are remov'd far off upon the sea.

- 9 Thou visitest the earth, & dost
it moisten plenteously, thou with Gods streame, full of water enrichest it greatly:
When thou hast so prepared it, thou dost them come prepare.
- 10 The ridges thou abundantly

The furrows of it thou settest, adorne as with a crowne,

also the paths where thou dost tread,

PSALM lxvi.

Psalme 66

To the chief musician a psalme or song.

O All yee lands, a joyfull noyse unto God doe yee rayse.

2 Sing forth the honour of his name:
make glorious his prayse.

3 How dreadfull in thy works art thou?
unto the Lord say yee:

through thy powres greatnes thy foes shall

4 All they shall bow themselves to thee that dwell upon the earth, and sing unto thee, they shall sing unto thy name with mirth.

Selah.

5 Come hither, also of the works of God take yee notice, he in his doing terrible towards mens children is:

convert, a way they had on foot to passe the river through, there we in him were glad.

7 He ruleth by his powre for ever,
his eyes the nations spie:

let not those that rebellious are lift up themselves on high.

Selah.

- 13 With offrings I'le go to thine house:
my vowes I'le pay to thee.
- 14 Which my lips uttred, & mouth spake,
when trouble was on mee.
- 15 Burnt offrings I'le offer to thee that full of fatnes are,

the Lord will not heare mee.

Pfalme 67

To the chief musician on Neginoth:
a psalme or Song.

GOD gracious be to us, & give his blessing us unto,
let him upon us make to shine his countenance also. Selah.

2 That there may be the knowledg of thy way the earth upon, and also of thy saving health in every nation.

3 O God let thee the people prayse,
let all people prayse thee.

4 O let the nations rejoyce, and let them joyfull bee:

For thou shalt give judgement unto
the people righteously, also the nations upon earth thou shalt them lead safely. Selah.

5 O God let thee the people prayse
let all people prayse thee.

To the chief musician, a psalme or song

PSALME Ixviii.

PSALME lxxix.

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim,
A psalme of David.

THe waters in unto my foule are come, o God, me save.

2 I am in muddy deep sunk downe, where I no standing have:

Into deep waters I am come,
where floods mee overflow.

3 I of my crying weary am,
my throat is dryed so;

Mine eyes faile: I wayt for my God.

4 They that have hated mee without a cause, then mine heads haire they more in number bee:

Also mine enemies wrongfully they are that would me slay, mighty they are; then I restor'd what I took not away.

5 O God thou knowst my foolishnes;
my sin's not hid from thee.

6 Who wayt on thee, Lord God of hoasts, let not be shamd for mee:

O never suffer them, who doe for thee inquiry make,

o God of Israell, to be confounded for my sake,

this was reproach to mee.
- 11 And I my garment sackcloth made:
yet must their proverb bee.
- 12 They that do sit within the gate, against mee speak they do;
unto the drinkers of strong drink,
I was a song also.
- 13 But I in an accepted time to thee Lord, make my prayr:
mee Lord, in thy salvations truth,
in thy great mercy heare.

- 14 Deliver me out of the mire, and mee from sinking keep:
let mee be freed mine haters from,
and out of waters deep.
- 15 O'reflow mee let not water floods, nor mee let swallow up

17 And hide not thou thy countenance from thy servant away;
because that I in trouble am;

doe thou it vindicate;
give mee deliverance, because of them that doe mee hate.

19 Thou hast knowne my reproach, also my shame, & my disgrace:
mine aduersaryes every one for some me to bemoane

I fought, but none there was; & for comforters, but found none.

and in me thirkt they vineger for drink made me to haue.

23 And let their eyes be darkened, that they may never see:

PSALM lxxix.

25 Their Pallace let be desolate:
none in their tents let dwell.

25 Because they him doe persecute on whom thy stroke is found:
also they talk unto the grief of them whom thou dost wound.

27 Thou unto their iniquity iniquity doe add:
into thy righteousnes for them let entrance none be had.

28 Out of the book of the living o doe thou them forth blot, and amongst them that righteous are 32 This thing when as they shall behold;

then shall be glad the meek;
also their heart shall ever live that after God doe seek.

33 For the Lord hears the poore, nor doth despise whom he hath bound.

PSALME lxix, lxx.

36 The seed also of his servants inherit shall the same:
also therein inhabit shall they that doe love his name.

Psalme 70

To the chief musician, a psalme to bring to remembrance.

- O GOD, to rescue mee,

PSALM lxxi.

- IEHOVAH, I for safety doe

- 2 Me rescue in thy righteousnes, let me deliverance have:
 to me doe thou incline thine eare,
 also doe thou me save.
- 3 Be thou my dwelling Rock, whereto
 I alwayes may resort:
 thou gav'st commandment me to save,
 for thou my Rock & Fort.
- 4 Out of the hand of the wicked
 my God, deliver mee,
 out of the hand of the unjust,
 leaven'd with crueltie.
- 5 For thou o God, Iehovah art mine expectation:
 and thou art hee whom from my youth
 my trust is set upon:
- 6 Thou hast upheld mee from the womb, thou art he that tookst mee out of my mothers belly; still my prayse shall be of thee.

- 7 To many I a wonder am
 but thou my refuge strong.
- 8 Let my mouth fill'd be with thy prayse, & honour all day long.
- 9 Within the time of elder age
 o cast me not away,

when my strength doth decay.
- 10 Because they that be enemyes and they that for my soule lay-wayt, doe yee him now pursue,

and apprehend him, for there is not one him to rescue.
- 12 Depart not farre from mee, o God,
my God hast to helpe mee.
- 13 The aduersaryes of my soule, let them ashamed bee:
Let them consumed be, let them be also covered,
both with reproach & dishonour, that for my hurt wayted.

(3)

- 14 But I with patience will wayt on thee continuallee, and I will adde yet more & more to all the prayse of thee.
- 15 My mouth forth shall thy righteousnes, and thy salvation show
from day to day, for of the same no number doe I know.
- 16 In the strong might of God the Lord
goe on a long will I:
I'll mention make of thy justice, yea ev'n of thine only.

PSALM lxxi.

- 17 From my youth up o mighty God, and hitherto I have declar'd the wonders wrought by thee.

doe not forsake mee: till I have thy power showne abroad,

Lord who's like thee unto?
- 20 Thou who hast caused mee to see afflictions great & sore, shalt mee revive, & me againe from depths of earth restore.
- 21 Thou shalt my greatnes multiply & comfort me alwayes.
- 22 Also with tuned Psaltery
I will shew forth thy prayse, O thou my God, I will sing forth to thee mine Harp upon, thy verity & faithfullnes, o Israels Holy-one.
- 23 My lips with shouting shall rejoyce
when I shall sing to thee:

Psalme 72

A psalme for Solomon.

O GOD, thy judgements give the King, & thy justice to the Kings Sonne.

2 He shall thy folk with justice judge,
& to thy poore see judgement done,

3 The mountaines shall abundantly unto the people bring forth peace:
the little hills shall bring the same,
by executing righteousness.

4 Poore of the people he shall judge, and children of the needy save;
& he in peeces shall break downe each one that them oppressed have.

5 They shall thee feare, while Sun & moon endure through generations all.

6 Like raine on mowne grasse he shall come:
as showres on earth distilling-fall.

7 The just shall flourish in his dayes, & store of peace till no moone bee.

from floud to lands end reigne shall hee.

- 10 Vpon him presents shall bestow of Tarshish, & the Iles, the Kings, Shebahs, & Sebahs Kings also,
shall unto him give offerings.
- 11 Yea to him all the kings shall fall, & serue him every nation:
- 12 For needy crying save he shall,
the poore, & helper that hath none:
- 13 The poore & needy he shall spare,
and the soules of the needy save.
- 14 Their soules from fraud & violence by him shall free redemption have:
And pretious in his sight shall be the bloud of them. And he shall live, and unto him shall every one of purest gold of Shebah give:
Also each one their humble prayr in his behalfe shall make alwayes:
and every one his blessednes shall dayly celebrate with prayse.

(3)

- 15 Of corne an handfull there shall be as long as Sun continue shall:

hee worketh by himselfe alone such things whereat men may marvell.

19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever, let the whole earth be

This. After the common tunes.

19 And aye be blest his glorious name, also let the earth all

THIRD BOOKE.

Pfalme 73

A psalme of Asaph.

TRuly to Israell God is good;
to men of a cleane heart.

2 But my feet almost slipt, my steps aside did well nigh start.

3 For I was envious at the fooles, in peace to see the ill.

4 For in their death no bands there are,
but firme their strength is still.

5 Like other meane men they are not in toylefome misery, nor are they stricken with like plagues
as other mortals bee.

6 Therefore doth pride like to a chaine encompasse them about,
and like a garment; violence doth cover them throughout.

7 Within the fatnes which they have extended are their eyes:
greater prosperity they have then their hearts can devise.

8 Corrupt they are, & wickedly speak guile: proudly they talk.

9 Against the heav'ns they set their mouth;
their tongue through th'earth doth walk.

10 There-

& is there in the highest one knowledge hereof also?
- 12 Loe, these are the ungodly ones who have tranquillity:
within the world they doe increase

- 13 Surely in vaine in purity of God I went, & then I prudently did understand the last end of these men.

how are they utterly consum'd

20 Like to a dreame when as a man

21 My heart thus was leaven'd with grief, prickt were my reins by mee:

Psalme 74

Maschil of Asaph.

O GOD, why hast thou cast us off,
why doth thy rage indure?
for ever smoaking out against the sheep of thy pasture?

2 Thy congregation call to minde the rod of thine inheritance which thou redeemed hast,

This mount Sion wherin thou dwelst.

3 Lift up thy foot on hye, unto the desolations
of perpetuity:

Thy foe within the Sanctuary hath done all lewd designs:

4 Amidst thy Church thy foes doe roare:
their Banners set for signes.

5 The man that axes on thick trees did lift up had renowne:

6 But now with axe & maules at once, her carv'd works they beat downe.

PSALM lxxiv.

7 Thy sanctuaries into fire they cast, the dwelling place of thy name downe unto the ground prophanely they did raze.

8 Let us together them destroy,
thus in their hearts they sayd: Gods Synagogues throughout the land all in the flames they layd.

9 Our signes we see not, there's no more a Prophet us among:
nor with us any to be found

10 How long shall the oppressing foe:

thine enemy for evermore shall he blaspheme thy name?

11 Why dost thou thus withdraw thine hand, the right hand of thy strength draw it forth to the length.

12 Because the mighty God hath been from ancient time my King, in midst of the earth he is salvation working.

13 Thou diddest by thy mighty powre deuide the sea afunder:
the Dragons heads in peeces thou didst break the waters under.

14 The heads of the Leviathan thou into peeces brake:

o Lord, also the foolish folk blasphemed have thy name.

19 O doe not to the multitude thy turtles soule deliver:

the congregation of thy poore

20 Vnto thy cov'nant have respect:
because the dark places

2 When I th'assembly shall receive

2 Th'earth & its dwellers all do melt:

also unto the wicked ones,
lift not the horne on hye.

5 Lift yee not up your horne on high:
with stiffned neck speak not,

6 For neither from East, West, nor South, promotion can be got.

7 But God is judge: he sets up one, another downe doth tread.

8 For in the Lords hand is a cup, also the wine is red:

It's full of mixture, & thereout he poures: but on earth all the wicked ones the dregs thereof

TO GOD I cryed with my voyce: yea with my voyce I have cryed unto the mighty God;

my sore ran in the night, refused comfort quite.

3. I did remember God, also

I did complaine, & my spirit

4 Awaking thou dost hold mine eyes:
I cannot speak for feares.

5 I have considered dayes of old,
of ancient times the yeares.

6 To my remembrance I doe call the song in night I had:

I commun'd with my heart, also strict search my spirit made.

7 For ever will the Lord cast off?
& pleas'd will he not bee?

8 His tender mercy is it ceast to perpetuitee?

His promise doth it, faile for aye?

9 Hath God forgot likewise gracious to be? hath he shut up in wrath his deare mercyes?

Selah.

10 Then did I say, within my selfe, tis mine infirmity:

the yeares of the right hand I will think on of the most high.

& of thy doings talk.

PSALM lxxvii, lxxviii

13 Within the temple is thy way,
 o God, where thou dost walk.
 What god so great as our God is?
 14 Works wonderfull that are thou God hast done; among the folk thou dost thy strength declare.
 15 Those that thy people are thou hast with thine owne arme set free, of Iacob also of Ioseph
 the childeren that bee. Selah

(4) 16 Thee did the waters see, o God, thee did the waters see:
 they were afraid, the deeps also could not but troubled bee, 17 With waters were the clouds pour'd forth, the skies a found out sent:
 also thine arrows on each side abroad dispersed went.
 18 Thy thunders voyce in heaven was:
 the world illuminate thy lightnings did, the earth also trembled & shook hereat.
 19 Thy wayes ith sea, thy paths & steps unknowne, are in the deep.
 20 By Moses & by Arons hand thou ledst thy folk like sheep.

Psalme 78

Maschil of Asaph.

Give listning care unto my law, yee people that are mine,

unto

PSALME lxx viii.

- Unto the sayings of my mouth doe yee your eare incline.
- 2 My mouth I'le ope in parables, I'le speak hid things of old:
- 3 Which we have heard & knowne: & which
our fathers have us told.
- 4 Them from their children wee'l not hide, to th'after age shewing the Lords prayses: his strength, & works of his wondrous doing.
- 5 In Iacob he a witnesse set, & put in Israell
a law, which he our fathers charg'd, they should their children tell:
- 6 That th'age to come & children which are to be borne might know; that they might rise up & the same unto their children show.
- 7 That they upon the mighty God their confidence might set:
and Gods works & his commandment might keep & not forget,
- 8 And might not like their fathers be,
a stiffe, stout race; a race that set not right their hearts: nor firme with God their spirit was.
- (2)
- 9 The armed sonnes of Ephraim,
that went out with their bowe, did turne their backs in the day when they did to battell goe.

PSALM lxxviii.

- 10 Gods cov'nant they kept not: to walk
in his law they denyde:
- 11 His works, & wonders, they forgot,
that he to them descryde.
- 12 Things that were mervielous he did within their fathers sight:
in Egipts land, within the field of Zoan, by his might.
- 13 He did devide the sea, also he caus'd them through to passe:
& he the waters made to stand that as an heap it was.
- 14 With cloud by day, with fire all night 15 he led them; Rocks he clave in wildernes, as from great deeps drink unto them he gave.
- 16 Ev'n from out of the stony rock streames he did bring also, & caused water to run downe like as the rivers do.
- (3)
- 17 Moreover they did adde yet more against him for to sin:
by their provoaking the most high the wildernes within.
- 18 And also they within their heart did tempt the God of might:
by asking earnestly for meat for their foules appetite:
- 19 Moreover they against God spake they sayd can God be able within

PSALME lxx viii.

within the defart wildernes to furnish us a table?

20 Loe, he the rock smote, thence gusht out waters, & streames did flow:
for his folk can he flesh provide,
can he give bread also?

21 The Lord heard, he was wroth for this,
so kindled was a fire
'gainst Iacob:&'gainst Israell
there came up wrathfull ire.

22 For they in God believed not:
nor in his health did hope:

23 Though from above he charg'd the clouds:
& doores of heav'n set ope:

(4)

24 Manna to eate he rained on them; & gave them the heavns wheat.

25 Each man of them ate Angells food:
to th'full he sent them meate.

26 Ith heav'ns he made the East-winde blow:
brought South-winde by his powre.

27 He flesh on them like dust: wing'd foules like the seas sand did showre.

28 And in the middest of their camp
he caused it to fall, ev'n round about on every side their dwelling places all.

29 So they did eate, they filled were abundantly also:

for that which was their owne desire
he did on them bestow:

30 How-

PSALM lxxviii.

- 30 Howbeit they were not estrang'd from their lustfull desire:
 but while their meat was in their mouths,
- 31 Vpon them came Gods ire,
 And flew their fat ones: & smote downe of Israell the choise men.
- 32 Still for all this they sin'd: nor did believe his wonders then.
- (5)
- 33 Therefore he did in vanity
 the dayes of their life spend, and hastily he brought their yeares vnto a fearfull end.
- 34 When he them flew, then after him they sought with their desire:
 and they return'd, early also did after God enquire.
- 35 Likewise that God was their strong rock
 they cal'd to memoree:
 and that the mighty God most high,
 was their Redeemer free.
- 36 Yet with their mouth they flattred him:
 and to him their tongues lyde.
- 37 For right their heart was not in them:
 nor did in's cov'nant byde.
- 38 But full of mercy, he forgave their sin, & stroyd them not;
 yea, oft he turn'd his wrath aside, nor rayl'd all's anger hot.
- 39 For he, that they were but fraile flesh, and as it were a winde

that

PSALME lxx viii.

that passeth, & comes not againe, recalled unto minde.

- 40 How oft in desart vext they him:
and made him there to moane?
- 41 Yea, they turn'd, tempted God: & did stint Isr'ells holy one.
- 42 His hand they did not, nor the day keep in their remembrance:
wherein he from the enemy
gave them deliverance:
- 43 And how his signes miraculous
in Egypt he had showne:
and his most fearfull prodigies within the field of Zoan:
- 44 Also how he their rivers had converted into bloud:
& (that they could not drink therof)
the waters of their floud.
- 45 Amongst them, which did them devoure,
he sent forth divers flies:
& them amongst, which them destroyd,
he sent forth frogs likewise.
- 46 He gave their fruit to th' Caterpillar:
their labour to th' Locust.
- 47 He did their Vines destroy with hails:
their Sycamores with frost.
- 48 Also unto the haile he did their cattell shut up fast:
likewise their heards of cattell to the fiery thunder blast,

PSALM lxxviii.

49 He cast on them fierce ire, & wrath, & indignation, & sore distresse: by sending forth ill Angells them upon.

(7)

50 He made a way unto his wrath, and their soule did not save from death: also their life over to Pestilence he gave,

51 He within Egypt land also all the first borne did smite:
those that within the tents of Ham were chiefest of their might:

52 But he made like a flock of sheep his owne folk forth to go:
like to a flock ith wildernes he guided them also.

53 And he in safety did them lead so that they did not dread:
within the sea their enemies
he also covered.

54 And to the border he did bring them of his holy place:
unto this mountaine which he did
by his right hand purchase.

55 Fore them he cast the heathen out, their lot he did deuide by line: & Isr'ells tribes he made in their tents to abide.

(8)

56 Yet they tempted the most high God,

and

PSALME LXXVIII.

& griev'd him bitterly:
also his testimonyes they kept not attentively:

57 But like their fathers back they turn'd and faithlesnesse did show:
they turned were aside ev'n like to a deceitfull bowe.

58 For they to anger did provoake him with their places hye: & with their graven Images, mov'd him to jealousy.

59 God hearing this, was wroth, & loath'd Isr'ell with hatred great:

60 So Shiloh's tent he left: the tent which men amongst he set,

61 And he delivered his strength into captivity:

also into the enemies hand
his beautifull glory.

62 To th' sword he gave his folk: & was wroth with his heritage.

63 Fire their young men devour'd: their maides none gave to marriage.

64 Their Priests fell by the sword: also their widdows did not weepe.

65 Then did the Lord arise as one awakned out of sleepe:

Like a strong man that after wine

66 doth shout. He also smote his foes behinde: & so he gave them an eternall blot.

PSALM lxxviii, lxxix.

(9)

- 67 Then he did Iosephs tent refuse:
nor Ephr'ims tribe approv'd.
68 But he the tribe of Iudah chose: mount Sion which he lov'd.
69 And he his Sanctuary built like unto places high:
like to the earth which he did found
to perpetuity.
70 Of David also his servant election he did make,
and from the place of folding up the sheep he did him take.
71 From following the ewes with young he did him then advance;
to feed Iacob his folk, also Isr'ell his heritance.
72 So he according to his hearts integrity them fed:
and by the wise discretion of his hands he them led.

Pfalme 79

A psalme of Asaph.

O GOD, the heathen entred have thine heritance, & defylde thine holy temple: they on heaps Ierusalem have pyide.

- 2 The dead bodyes of thy servants they given have for meate to th' fowles of heav'n: flesh of thy Saints for beasts of earth to eate.

PSALME lxxix.

- 3 Their bloud they have forth powred round about Ierusalem like unto waters: & there was none for to bury them.
- 4 To those that neere unto us dwell reproach become are wee:
a scotting & a scorne to them that round about us bee,
- 5 How long, Iehovah, wilt thou still continue in thine ire,
for ever? shall thy jealousie burne like as doth the fire?
- 6 Vpon the heathen poure thy wrath which never did thee know, upon the kingdomes that have not ca^d on thy name also.
- 7 Because they Iacob have devour'd:
his habitation
they also wondrously have brought to desolation.
- (2)
- 8 Minde not against us former sins, let thy mercies make hast us to prevent: because we are neere utterly layd waste.
- 9 God of our safety, help thou us for thy names glory make, us free also, & purge away our sin for thy names sake.
- 10 Why say the heathen where's their Gods with heathen let be knowne

before

PSALM lxxix, lxxx.

before our eyes, the vengeance of thy servants bloud out flowne.

11 Before thee let the prisoners sighs come up, accordingly

as is thy mighty arme: save those that are design'd to dye,

12 And to our neighbours seven fold, into their bosome pay,

that their reproach, with which o Lord, reproached thee have they.

13 So we thy folk & pasture sheepe, will give thee thanks alwayes:

and unto generations all,

wee will shew forth thy prayse.

Psalme 80

To the chief musician upon Shoshannim Eduth, a psalme of Asaph.

O Isr'ells shepheard, give thou eare; that Ioseph leadst about like as a flock: that dwelst betweene the Cherubims, shine out.

2 Before Ephr'im & Benjamin, Manasseh's tribe also,

doe thou stir up thy strength, & come,
and to us safety show.

3 O God returne thou us againe, and cause thy countenance

to shine forth upon us; so wee
shall have deliverance.

4 Lord God of hoasts, how long wilt thou be wroth at thy folks prayrs?

PSALME lxxx;

- 5 Thou feedst with bread of tears, & them to drink giv'st many teares.
6 A strife unto our neighbours us thou dost also expose:
and scornefully amongst themselves laugh at us doe our foes.
7 O God of hoasts, turne us againe, & cause thy countenance
to shine forth upon us, so wee
shall have deliverance.

(2)

- 8 Thou hast brought out of Egypt land a Vine, thou diddest cast the heathen people forth, also this vine thou planted hast.
9 Before it thou prepared hast a roome where it might stand:
deep root thou didst cause it to take and it did fill the land.
10 Her shade hid hills, & her boughs did like Cedars great extend.
11 Her boughs to th'sea, & her branches she to the floud did send.
12 Why hast thou then her hedges made quite broken downe to lye, so that all those doe pluck at her that in the way passe by?
13 The Boare from out the wood he doth by wasting it annoy: & wilde beasts of the field doe it devouringly destroy.

v

14 wee

PSALM lxxx, lxxx i.

(3)

- 14 Wee doe beseech thee to returne o God of hoasts, incline to look from heaven, & behould, & visit thou this vine.
- 15 The vineyard which thou hast also with thy right hand set fast, that branch likewise which for thy selfe strongly confirm'd thou hast.
- 16 It is consumed with the fire and utterly cut downe, perish they doe, & that because thy countenance doth frowne.
- 17 Vpon the man of thy right hand let thine hand present bee:
upon the son of man whom thou hast made so strong for thee
- 18 So then from henceforth wee will not from thee goe back at all:
o doe thou quicken us, & wee upon thy name will call.
- 19 Lord God of hoasts; turne us againe,
and cause thy countenance
to shine forth upon us, so wee
shall have deliverance.

Psalme 81

To the chief musician upon Gith,
a psalme of Asaph.

Sing unto God who is our strength, and that with a loud voyce:
unto him that is Jacobs God

PSALME lxxx r.

make yee a joyfull noyse.

2 Take up a psalme of melodie, and bring the Timbrel hither:
the Harp which soundes so pleasantly with Psaltery together.

3 As in the time of the new moone with Trumpet sound on high:
in the appoynted time & day of our solemnity.

4 Because that unto Israell this thing a statute was;
and by the God of Iacob this did for a judgement pass.

5 This witness he in Ioseph set when as through Egypt land he went: I there a language heard
I did not understand.

6 I from the burden which he bare his shoulder did set free:
his hands also were from the pots delivered by mee.

7 Thou cal'dst in streights, & I thee freed:
in thunders secret way
I answered thee, I prov'd thee at waters of Meribah. Selah.

8 Heare o my people, & I will
testifie unto thee:

o Israell, if that thou wilt attention give to mee.

9 Any strange god there shall not be

PSALM lxxxv.

- in midst of thee at all:
 nor unto any forrein god thou bowing downe shalt fall.
 10 I am the Lord thy God who thee from land of Egypt led:
 thy mouth ope wide, & thou by mee with plenty shalt be fed.
 11 My people yet would not give eare unto the voyce I spake:
 and Israell would not in mee quiet contentment take.
 12 So in the hardnes of their heart
 I did them send away,
 in their owne consultations likewise then walked they.

(3)

- 13 O that my people unto mee obedient had bin:
 and o that Israell he had walked my wayes within.
 14 I should within a little time have pulled downe their foes:
 I should have turn'd my hand upon such as did them oppose.
 15 The haters of the Lord to him obedience should have faynd:
 but unto perpetuity
 their time should have remaind.
 16 And with the finest of the wheat have nourisht them should hee:
 with honie of the rock I should have

PSALME lxxxii.

have satisfied thee.

Psalme 82

A psalme of Asaph.

THe mighty God doth stand within th'assemblie of the strong:
and he it is that righteously doth judge the gods among.

2 How long a time is it that yee will judge unrighteouslie?
& will accept the countenance of those that wicked bee?

3 See that yee doe defend the poore, also the fatherlesse:
unto the needy justice doe,
and that are in distresse.

4 The wasted poore, & those that are needy deliver yee;
and them redeeme out of the hand of such as wicked bee.

5 They know not, nor will understand, in darknes they walk on:
all the foundations of the earth quite out of course are gone.

6 I sayd that yee are gods, & sonnes of th' highest yee are all.

7 But yee shall dye like men, & like one of the princes fall.

8 That thou mayst judge the earth O God, doe thou thy selfe advance;
for thou shalt have the nations for thine inheritance.

PSALM lxxxiii.

Pfalme 83.

A psalme or song of Asaph,

O GOD, doe not thou silence keep o doe not thou refraine thy selfe from speaking, & o God.
doe not thou dumb remaine.

- 2 For loe, thine enemies that be doe rage tumultuously:
& they that haters be of thee have lift the head on hye.
- 3 Against those that thy people be they crafty counsell take;
also against thy hidden ones they consultation make.
- 4 They sayd, lest they a nation be,
let's cut them downe therefore,
that in remembrance Iſr'ells name may not be any more.
- 5 For they together taken have counsell with one consent, and in confederation
against thee they are bent.
- 6 The tabernacles of Edom and of the Ishmaelites:
the people of the Haggarens & of the Moabites.
- 7 The men of Gebal, with Ammon, and Amaleck conspire,
the Philistims, with them that be inhabitants of Tyre.
- 8 Assyria moreover is

PSALME lxxxiii.

conjoynded unto them:
& help they have administred unto Lots childerren.

(2)

- 9 As thou didst to the Middianites, so to them be it done:
as unto Sisera & Iabin
at the Brook of Kison
- 10 Who nere to Endor suddenly were quite discomfited:
who also did become as dung that on the earth is spread.
- 11 Like unto Oreb, & like Zeeb make thou their Nobles fall, yea, as Zeba & Zalmunna make thou their Princes all.
- 12 Who sayd, for our possession Gods houses let us take.
- 13 My God, thou like a wheel, like straw before the winde them make.
- 14 As fire doth burre a wood, & as the flame sets hills on fire:
- 15 So with thy tempest them pursue, & fright them in thine ire.
- 16 Doe thou their faces all fill full of ignominious shame:
that so they may O Lord, be made to seek after thy name.
- 17 Confounded let them ever be,
and terrible troubled:
yea, let them be put unto shame,

and

PSALM LXXXIII, LXXXIV.

and bee extinguished.

18 That men may know; that thou whose name IEHOVAH is only,
art over all the earth throughout advanced the most high.

Psalme 84

To the chief musician upon Gittith a psalm for the sonnes of Korah.

How amiable Lord of hoasts
thy tabernacles bee?

2 My soule longs for Iehovahs courts, yea it ev'n faints in mee.

Mine heart, my flesh also cryes out after the living God:

3 Yea ev'n the sparrow hath found out an house for hir aboad.

Also the swallow findes her nest thine Altars neere unto where shee her young layes: Lord of hoasts, my King, my God also.

4 Blest they that dwell within thy house:
still they will give thee prayse. Selah.

5 Blest is the man whose strength's in thee, in whose heart are their wayes.

6 Who as they passe through Baca's Vale doe make it a fountaine:

also the pooles that are therein
are filled full of raine:

7 From strength to strength they go: to God in Sion all appeare.

8 Lord God of hoasts, o heare my pra'yr,

o Jacobs

PSALME xCV, xCVI.

& also the drye land is his for it his hands did frame.

6 O come, & let us worship give,
& bowing downe adore:

he that our maker is, the Lord
o let us kneele before.

7 Because he is our God, & wee his pasture people are,

& of his hands the sheep: to day if yee his voyce will heare,

8 As in the provocation, o harden not your heart:

as in day of temptation,
within the vast defart.

9 Whē mee your fathers tryde, & pro^vd, & my works lookt upon:

10 Fourty yeares long I griev^d was with
this generation:

And sayd, this people erre in heart:
my wayes they doe not know.

11 To whom I sware in wrath: if they into my rest should goe.

Psalme 96.

Sing to the Lord a new song: sing all th^eearth the Lord unto:

2 Sing to Iehovah, blesse his Name, still his salvation show.

3 To^th heathen his glory, to all people his wonders spread.

4 For great^s th^e Lord, much to be pray^sd, above all gods in dread.

PSALM xCvi.

5 Because vaine Idols are they all which heathens Gods doe name; but yet Iehovah he it is that did the heavens frame.

6 Honour & comely majesty abide before his face:
 both fortitude & beauty are within his holy place.

7 Yee kindreds of the people all unto the Lord afford, glory & mightynes also give yee unto the Lord.

8 The glory due unto his name give yee the Lord unto;
 offer yee an oblation,
 enter his courts also.

(2)

9 In beauty of his holynes doe yee the Lord adore:
 the universall earth likewise
 in feare stand him before.

10 'Mong heathens say, Iehovah reigns:
 the world in stablenes shall be, unmov'd also: he shall judge folk in righteousness.

11 O let the heav'ns thereat be glad,
 & let the earth rejoyce:
 o let the sea, & it's fullnes with roaring make a noyse.

12 O let the field be full of joye, & all things there about:

then

PSALME xCvi, xCvii.

then all the trees that be i'th wood they joyfully shall shout

13 Before Iehovah, for he comes,
he comes earths judge to bee.
the world with justice, & the folke judge with his truth shall hee.

Pfalme 97

THe Lord doth reigne, the earth
o let heerat rejoyce:
the many Isles with mirth
let them lift up their voyce.

2 About him round
dark clouds there went, right & judgement
his throne doe found.

3 Before him fire doth goe, & burnes his foes about.

4 The world was light also by lightnings he sent out:
the earth it saw & it trembled.

5 The hills melted
like wax away
At presence of the Lord:
at his presence who is of all the earth the Lord.

6 That righteousnes of his
the heavens high
they doe forth show:
all folk also see his glory.

PSALM XCvii.

7 Who graven Images

 let dreadfull shamefullnes:
 & who in Idols vaine
 themselves doe boast:
 with worship bow
 to him all you

Gods Angells hoast.

8 Sion heard, & was glad, glad Iudahs daughters were,
 this cause, o Lord, they had,
 thy judgements did appeare.

9 For Lord thou high all earth set o're:
 all Gods before
 in dignity.

10 Yee that doe love the Lord,
 the evill hate doe yee;
 to his Saints soules afford protection doth hee:
 he will for them
 freedome command
 out of the hand
 of wicked men.

11 For men that righteous are surely there is sowne light: & gladnes for their share that are in heart upright.

make yee also a cheerfull sound, to judge the earth: rightly with justice shall he judge the world,

MAke yee a joyfull sounding noyse unto Iehovah, all the earth:

2 Serve yee Iehovah with gladnes:
before his presence come with mirth.

3 Know, that Iehovah he is God, who hath us formed it is hee,

make yee confession unto him, continue doth his verity.

Another of the same.

MAke yee a joyfull noyse unto Iehovah all the earth:

- 2 Serve yee Iehovah with gladnes:
before him come with mirth.

- 3 Know, that Iehovah he is God, not wee our selves, but hee hath made us: his people, & sheep of his pasture are wee.

- 4 O enter yee into his gates with prayse, & thankfullnesse into his Courts: confesse to him, & his Name doe yee blesse.

- 5 Because Iehovah he is good, his bounteous-mercy
is everlasting: & his truth

Psalme 101.

A psalme of David.

Mercy & judgement I will sing,
Lord, I will sing to thee.

- 2 I'll wisely doe in perfect way:
when wilt thou come to mee?
I will in midst of my house walk in my hearts perfectnes:

matter of wickednes:

I hate their worke that turne aside, it shall not cleave mee to.

4 Froward in heart from mee shall part, none evill will I know.

5 I'le cut him off, that slaundereth his neighbour privily:

I cannot beare the proud in heart, nor him that looketh high.

6 Vpon the faithfull in the land mine eyes shall be, that they may dwell with mee: he shall mee serve that walks in perfect way.

7 Hee that a worker is of guile, shall not in my house dwell:
before mine eyes he shall not be setled, that lies doth tell.

8 Yea, all the wicked of the land early destroy will I:
to cutt off from Gods citty all that work iniquity.

Psalme 102

A prayer of the afflicted when he is overwhelmed, & poureth out his complaint before the Lord.

LORD, heare my supplication, & let my cry come thee unto:

2 I'th day when trouble is on mee, thy face hide not away mee fro:

Thine eare to mee doe thou incline, i'th day I cry, soone answer mee:

PSALM CII.

- 1 For as the smoake my dayes consume, & like an hearth my bones burnt bee.
- 2 My heart is smote, & dryde like grasse, that I to eate my bread forget:
- 3 By reason of my groanings voyce my bones unto my skin are set.
- 4 Like Pelican in wildernes, like Owle in defart so am I:
- 5 I watch, & like a sparrow am on house top solitarily.
- 6 Mine enemies daily mee reproach:
 'gainst mee they rage, 'gainst mee they sweare:
- 7 That I doe ashes eate for bread:
 & mixe my drink with weeping-teare.
- 8 By reason of thy fervent wrath & of thy vehement-disdaine:
 for thou hast high advanced mee, & thou hast cast mee downe againe.
- (2)
- 9 My dayes as shaddow that decline:
 & like the withered grasse am I.
- 10 But thou, Lord, dost abide for aye:
 & thy Name to eternity.
- 11 Thou wilt arise, & wilt shew forth thy tender-mercy on Sion:
 for it is time to favour her,
 yea the set time is now come on.
- 12 For in her stones thy servants doe take pleasure, & her dust pittie.
- 13 And heathens shall the Lords Name feare:
 & all Kings of th'earth thy glory.

PSALME CII.

16 When as the Lord shall Sion build hee in his glory shall appeare.

17 The poor's petition hee'l regard,
& hee will not despise their pray'r.

18 This shall in writing be inroll'd for the succeeding-after-race:
that people also which shall bee created, they the Lord may prayse.

19 For from his Sanctuary high from heavn's the Lord the earth doth see:

20 To heare the groanes of prisoners:
to loose them that deaths children bee.

21 The Lords prayse in Ierusalem:
his Name in Sion to record.

22 when people are together met,
& Kingdomes for to serve the Lord.

(3)

23 He weakned hath i'th way my strength, & shortened my dayes hath hee.

24 I sayd, in middest of my dayes my God doe not away take mee:

Thy yeares throughout all ages are.
25 Thou hast the earth's foundation layd for elder time: & heavens bee the work which thine owne hands have made.

26 They perish shall, but thou shalt stand:
they all as garments shall decay:

& as a wearing-vestiment thou shalt thē change, & chang'd are they.

27 But thou art ev'n the same: thy yeares they never shall consumed bee.

PSALM CII, CII.

20 Thy servants children shall abide,

Psalm 103.

A psalm of David.

O Thou my soule, Iehovah blesse, & all things that in me most inward are, in humblenes his Holy-Name blesse ye

2 The Lord blesse in humility, o thou my soule: also put not out of thy memory

all's bounties, thee unto.

3 For hee it is who pardoneth all thine iniquities:

hee it is also who healeth

all thine infirmities.

4 Who thy life from destruction redeems: who crowneth thee with his tender compassion

& kinde benigneitee.

5 Who with good things abundantlee doth satisfie thy mouth:

so that like as the Eagles bee renewed is thy youth.

6 The Lord doth judgement & justice

7 To Moses shew'd those wayes of his:

8 The Lord is mercifull also hee's very gracious:

PSALME CIII.

and unto anger hee is slow,
in mercy plenteous.

9 Contention he will not maintaine
to perpetuity:

nor he his anger will retaine unto eternity.

10 According to our sins likewise to us hee hath not done:
nor hath he our iniquities rewarded us upon.

11 Because even as the heavens are in height the earth above:
so toward them that doe him feare confirmed is his love.

12 Like as the East & West they are farre in their distances:
he hath remov'd away so far from us our trespasses.

13 A fathers pittie like unto,
which he his sonnes doth beare:
like pittie doth Iehovah shew to them that doe him feare.

14 For he doth know this frame of ours:
he minds that dust wee bee.

15 Mans dayes are like the grasse: like flowers in field, so flourisheth hee.

16 For over it the winde doth passe, & it away doth goe;
also the place wheras it was
noe longer shall it know.

PSALM CIII, CIV. 29

- 21 All yee that are the Lords armies,

from South, & Northerne lands.
- 3 I'th defart, in a defart way they wandred: no towne finde,

7 In such a way that was most right he led them forth also:

that to a citty which they might

8 O that men would Iehovah prayse

9 Because that he the longing soule also of him that is most high contemned the counsell.

22 Therefore with molestation hee did bring downe their hearts:

downe did they fall, & none their waie

23 Then did they to Iehovah cry when they were in distress:

who did them set at liberty

Psalme 120.

A song of degrees.

VNto the Lord, in my distresse
I cry'd, & he heard mee.

2 From lying lipps & guilefull tongue,
o Lord, my soule set free.

3 What shall thy false tongue give to thee, or what on thee confer?

4 Sharp arrows of the mighty ones, with coales of juniper.

5 Woe's mee, that I in Mefech doe a sojourner remaine:

that I doe dwell in tents, which doe

PSALME CXXII, CXXIII, CXXIV.

As maides eyes to her mistresse hand,

- 3 O Lord be mercifull to us, mercifull to us bee:
because that filled with contempt

had passed on their way:
- 6 Blest be the Lord, that to their teeth

- 7 Our soule, as bird, escaped is out of the fowlers snare:
the snare asunder broken is,
and wee delivered are.

who is the maker of the earth,

Pfalme 129.

A song of degrees.

FROM my youth, now may Isr'ell say,
oft have they mee assaild:

- 2 They mee assaild oft from my youth, yet 'gainst mee nought prevaild.
- 3 The ploughers plough'd upon my back, their furrows long they drew:
- 4 The righteous Lord the wickeds cords
he did asunder-hew.

which ere it's grown, doth wither:

nor therewith hee his bosome fills

MY heart's not haughty, Lord,

8 Those mens desires that wicked are,
Iehovah, doe not grant,
their wicked purpose further not,
lest they themselves doe vaunt.

PSALM Cxl, Cxlr.

- 9 As for the head of them that mee doe round about inclose, o let the molestation
of their lips cover those.
- 10 Let burning coales upon them fall, into the fire likewise
let them be cast, into deepe pits, that they no more may rise.
- 11 Let not i'ch earth establisht bee men of an evill tongue:
evill shall hunt to overthrow the man of violent wrong.
- 12 The afflicteds cause, the poore mans right,
I know God will maintaine:
- 13 Yea, just shall praise thy Name: th'upright shall 'fore thy face remaine.

Psalme 141.

A psalme of David.

- O GOD, my Lord, on thee I call,
doe thou make hast to mee:
and harken thou unto my voice,
when I cry unto thee.
- 2 And let my pray'r directed be as incense in thy sight:
and the up-lifting of my hands
as sacrifice at night.
- 3 Iehovah, oh that thou would'st set a watch my mouth before:
as also of my lips with care
o doe thou keepe the dore.
- 4 Bow not my heart to evill things;

PSALME Cxli,

- to doe the wicked deed with wicked workers: & let not mee of their dainties feed.
- 5 Let just-men smite mee, kindenes 'tis;
let him reprove mee eke,
it shall be such a pretious oyle,
my head it shall not breake:
For yet my prayr's ev'n in their woes.
- 6 When their judges are cast on rocks, then shall they heare my words, for they are sweet to taste.
- 7 Like unto one who on the earth doth cutt & cleave the wood, ev'n so our bones at the graves mouth are scattered abroad.
- 8 But unto thee o God, the Lord directed are mine eyes:
my soule o leave not destitute,
on thee my hope relyes.
- 9 O doe thou keepe mee from the snare which they have layd for mee; & also from the grins of those that work iniquitee.
- 10 Together into their owne nets
o let the wicked fall:
untill such time that I escape may make from them withall.

Psalme 142.

Maschil of David, a prayer when he was in the cave.

PSALM CXLIII

- VNto Iehovah with my voice,
 I did unto him cry:
 unto Iehovah with my voice
 my sute for grace made I.
- 2 I did poure out before his face
 my meditation:
 before his face I did declare the trouble mee upon.
- 3 O'rewhelm'd in mee when was my spirit,
 then thou didst know my way: I'th way. I walkt, a snare for mee they privily did lay.
- 4 On my right hand I lookt, & saw,
 but no man would mee know, all refuge faild mee: for my soule none any care did show.
- 5 Then to thee Lord, I cryde, & sayd,
 my hope thou art alone: & in the land of living ones thou art my portion.
- 6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry:
 from my pursuers save thou mee, which stronger bee then I.
- 7 That I thy Name may praise, my soule from prison oh bring out:
 when thou shalt mee reward, the just shall compasse mee about.

Psalme 143.

A psalme of David.

PSALME CXXII.

LORD, heare my prayr, give eare when I doe supplicate to thee:

in thy truth, in thy righteoufnes;
make answer unto mee.

2 And into judgement enter not with him that serveth thee;
for in thy sight no man that lives can justified bee.

3 For th'emie hath persude my soule, my life to th' ground hath throwne: & made mee dwell i th' dark like them that dead are long agone.

4 Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed perplexedly in mee:
my heart also within mee is made desolate to bee.

5 I call to minde the dayes of old,
I meditation use
on all thy words: upon the work of thy hands I doe muse.

6 I even I doe unto thee reach mine out-stretched hands:
so after thee my soule doth thirst as doe the thrifty lands. Selah.

7 Hast, Lord, heare mee, my spirit doth faile, hide not thy face mee fro:
lest I become like one of them that downe to pit doe go.

8 Let mee thy mercy heare i th' morne, for I doe on thee stay,

PSALM Cxliij, Cxliij.

wherin that I should walk cause mee to understand the way:

For unto thee I lift my soule.

9 O Lord deliver mee from all mine enemies; I doe flye to hide my selfe with thee.

10 Because thou art my God, thy will oh teach thou mee to doe, thy spirit is good: of uprightnes lead mee the land into.

11 Iehovah, mee o quicken thou ev'n for thine owne Names sake;
And for thy righteousnes my soule from out of trouble take.

12 Doe thou also mine enemies cut off in thy mercy, destroy them that afflict my soule:
for thy servant am I.

Psalme 144.

A psalme of David.

O Let Iehovah blessed be who is my rock of might,
who doth instruct my hands to war,
and my fingers to fight.

2 My goodnes, fortresse, my hye towre, & that doth set mee free:
my shield, my trust, which doth subdue my people under mee.

3 Iehovah, what is man, that thou knowledge of him dost take?
it is the son of man, that thou account of him dost make?

4 Man's like to vanity: his dayes passe like a shade away.

5 Lord, bow the heav'ns, come downe & touch the mounts & smoake shall they.

6 Lightning cast forth, & scatter them:
thine arrows shoor, them rout,

7 Thine hand o send thou from above, doe thou redeeme mee out:

And rid mee from the waters great:
from hand of strangers brood:

8 Whose mouth speaks lyes, their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

(2)

9 O God, new songs I'le sing to thee:
upon the Psaltery,
and on ten stringed instrument to thee sing praise will I.

10 It's hee that giveth unto Kings safety victorious:
his servant David he doth save from sword pernicious.

11 Rid mee from hand of strange children, whose mouth speakes vanity:
& their right hand a right hand is of lying falsity:

12 That like as plants which are growne up in youth may be our sons;
our daughters pallace like may be pollisht as corner stones:

13 Our garners full, affording store of every sort of meates;

our cattell bringing thousands forth,
ten thousands in our streets:

14 Strong let our oxen bee to work, that breaking in none bee nor going out: that so our streets may from complaints bee free.

15 O blessed shall the people be whose state is such as this:
O blessed shall the people be,
whose God Iehovah is.

Psalme 145.

Dauids psalme of praise.

MY God, O King, I'll thee extoll: & blesse thy Name for aye.

2 For ever will I praise thy Name;
and blesse thee every day.

3 Great is the Lord, most worthy praise:
his greatnes search can none.

4 Age unto age shall praise thy works:
& thy great acts make knowne.

5 I of thy glorious honour will speake of thy majesty; & of the operations
by thee done wondrously.

6 Also men of thy mighty works shall speake which dreadfull are:
also concerning thy greatnes,
it I will forth declare:

7 Thy great goodnes memory they largely shall expresse:

PSALME CXXII

- and they shall with a shouting voice
sing of thy righteousness.
- 8 The Lord is gracious, & hee is full of compassion:
slow unto anger, & full of commiseration.
- 9 The Lord is good to all: or'e all part (2)
his works his mercies bee.
- 10 All thy works shall praise thee, o Lord:
& thy Saints shall blesse thee,
- 11 They'le of thy kingdomes glory speake:
and talk of thy powre bye;
- 12 To make mens sons his great acts know:
his kingdomes majesty.
- 13 Thy Kingdome is a kingdome aye:
& thy reigne lasts alwayes.
- 14 The Lord doth hold up all that fall:
and all downe-bow'd ones rayse.
- 15 All eyes wayt on thee, & their meat thou dost in season bring.
- 16 Opprest thy hand, & the desire fill't of each living thing.
- 17 In all his wayes the Lord is just:
& holy in's works all.
- 18 Hee's neere to all that call on him:
in truth that on him call.
- 19 Hee satisfy will the desire of those that doe him feare:
Hee will be safety unto them,
and when they cry he'le heare.
- 20 The Lord preserves each one of them

by speaking shall exprefs:
also all flesh his holy Name for evermore shall blefs.

Pfalme 146.

THe Lord praise: praise (my soule) the Lord.
So long as I doe live

I'le praise the Lord; while that I am, praise to my God I'le give.

3 Trust not in Princes; nor mans son who can no succour send.

his thoughts that day doe end.

5 Happie is hee that hath the God of Iacob for his ayd:

whose expectation is upon Iehovah his God stayd.

6 Which heav'n, earth, sea, all in them made:
truth keeps for evermore:

the Lord ope's eyes of blinde,

the Lord doth raise the bowed downe;
the Lord to'th just is kinde.
